WORKING TOGETHER IN WARTIME

Our school, DeVilbiss, has just completed another year—another year of war and it has brought many changes to us. We've had to give up clubs, and parties, and some of our lazy fun; we've laid aside favorite courses for practical, necessary subjects, but there has been no real hardship.

Everyone has pitched in and is doing his job. Some of us work for the Red Cross; others learn First Aid; many help the U. S. O. We have tried to make Christmas happier for British children by sending gift boxes overseas; we've contributed more to the War Chest than any other high school in town; we've attempted to develop ourselves as staunchly physically as mentally; and the one thing of which we are most proud is our purchases of War Bonds. Yes, we have done much, but we still have much to do.

The everyday tasks we do, as we work toward our goal, have made DeVilbiss an offensive industry, as well as a defense industry. Our school is vitally alive; it works; it prepares; it is united. It is in this mode that the Pot O' Gold wishes to present the 1944 DeVilbiss to you.

We have tried to show how each person is an absolutely essential part of this war plant.

Our administrators and teachers are the production chiefs—the workers who carefully pilot us through our four years. It is their efforts which keep this plant running smoothly, preparing us for tomorrow's work.

The freshmen enter as raw materials, each one hoping to make himself an efficient, helpful citizen. All have started high school. The molding for life has begun.

Our sophomores are the blend of the raw materials. They have been transformed into workable substance; they have become orientated and are now able to function. They have become the foundation upon which we build.

The junior year sees the molding of the workable substance. Here begins the realization of the value of each subject as every small bit of knowledge shapes itself into the future plan and scheme of life.

At last the end is near. Your senior year makes you a finished product but don't be too confident—you've merely finished a single phase of your life. There are regrets for the time you've wasted and the wrongs you've done; there are memories of friends and the fun you've had; but best of all there are the ambitions for the future. You know how much more there is to learn; you try to prepare for the challenges of tomorrow; and you—yes, you—go onward, forward with this wartime period.

Many DeVilbiss students have gone into our country's armed forces, sacrificing—no, let's say postponing—some of the best and fullest years of their lives. We want, in our small way, to show them what is being done back home to preserve and ever improve that which they fight for—our freedoms. It is to these fighters and to those who have shared in making this a productive school, that this annual is dedicated.

May we keep working until the last echo of battle dies away, so that we may all reach our rainbow's end—our Pot O' Gold—not one of riches, but one of golden opportunities for peace and happiness.

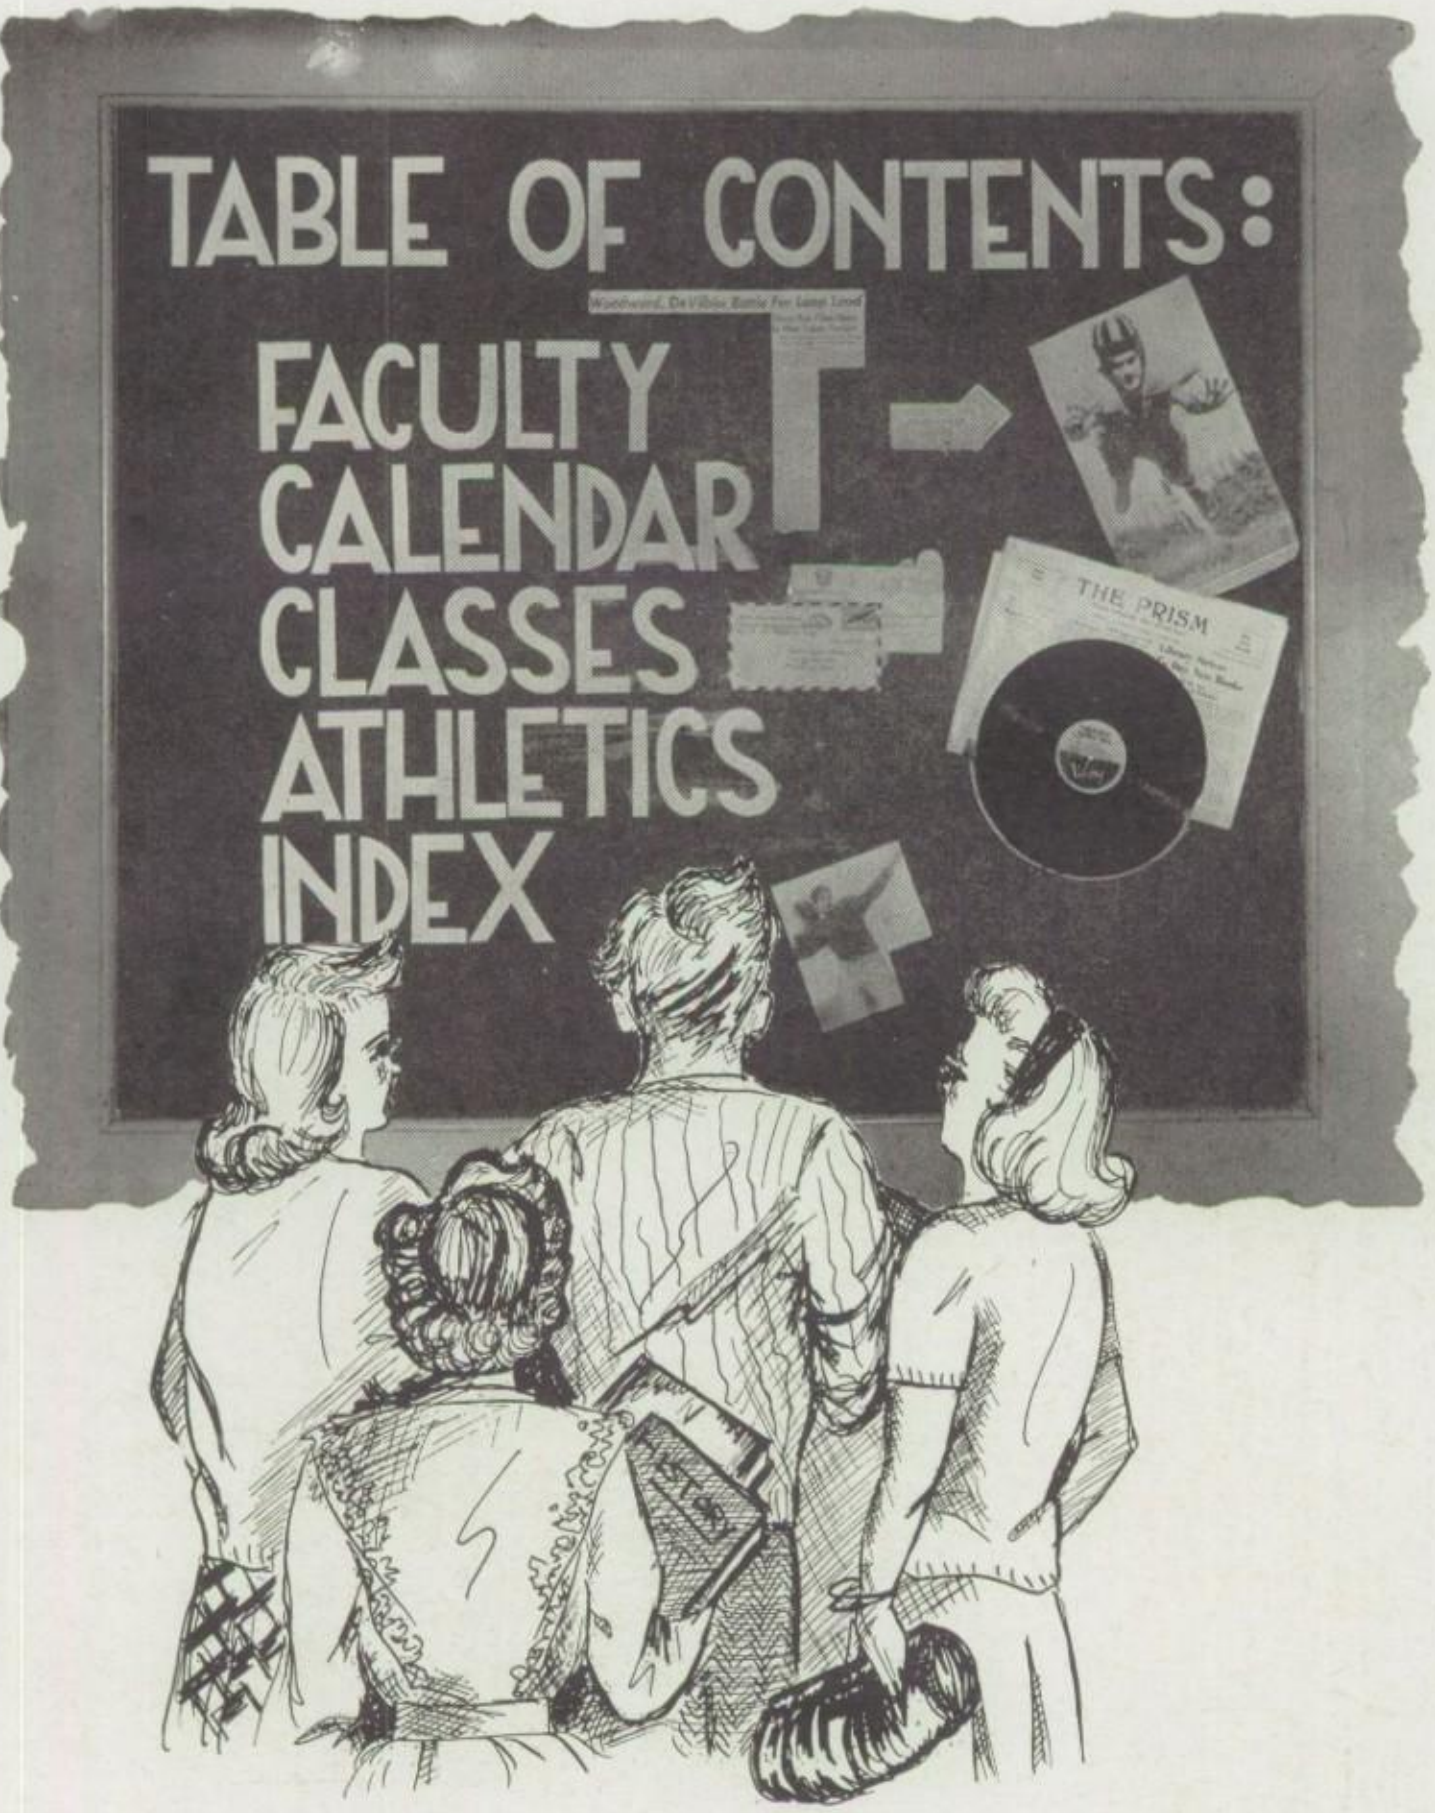
TABLE OF CONTENTS:

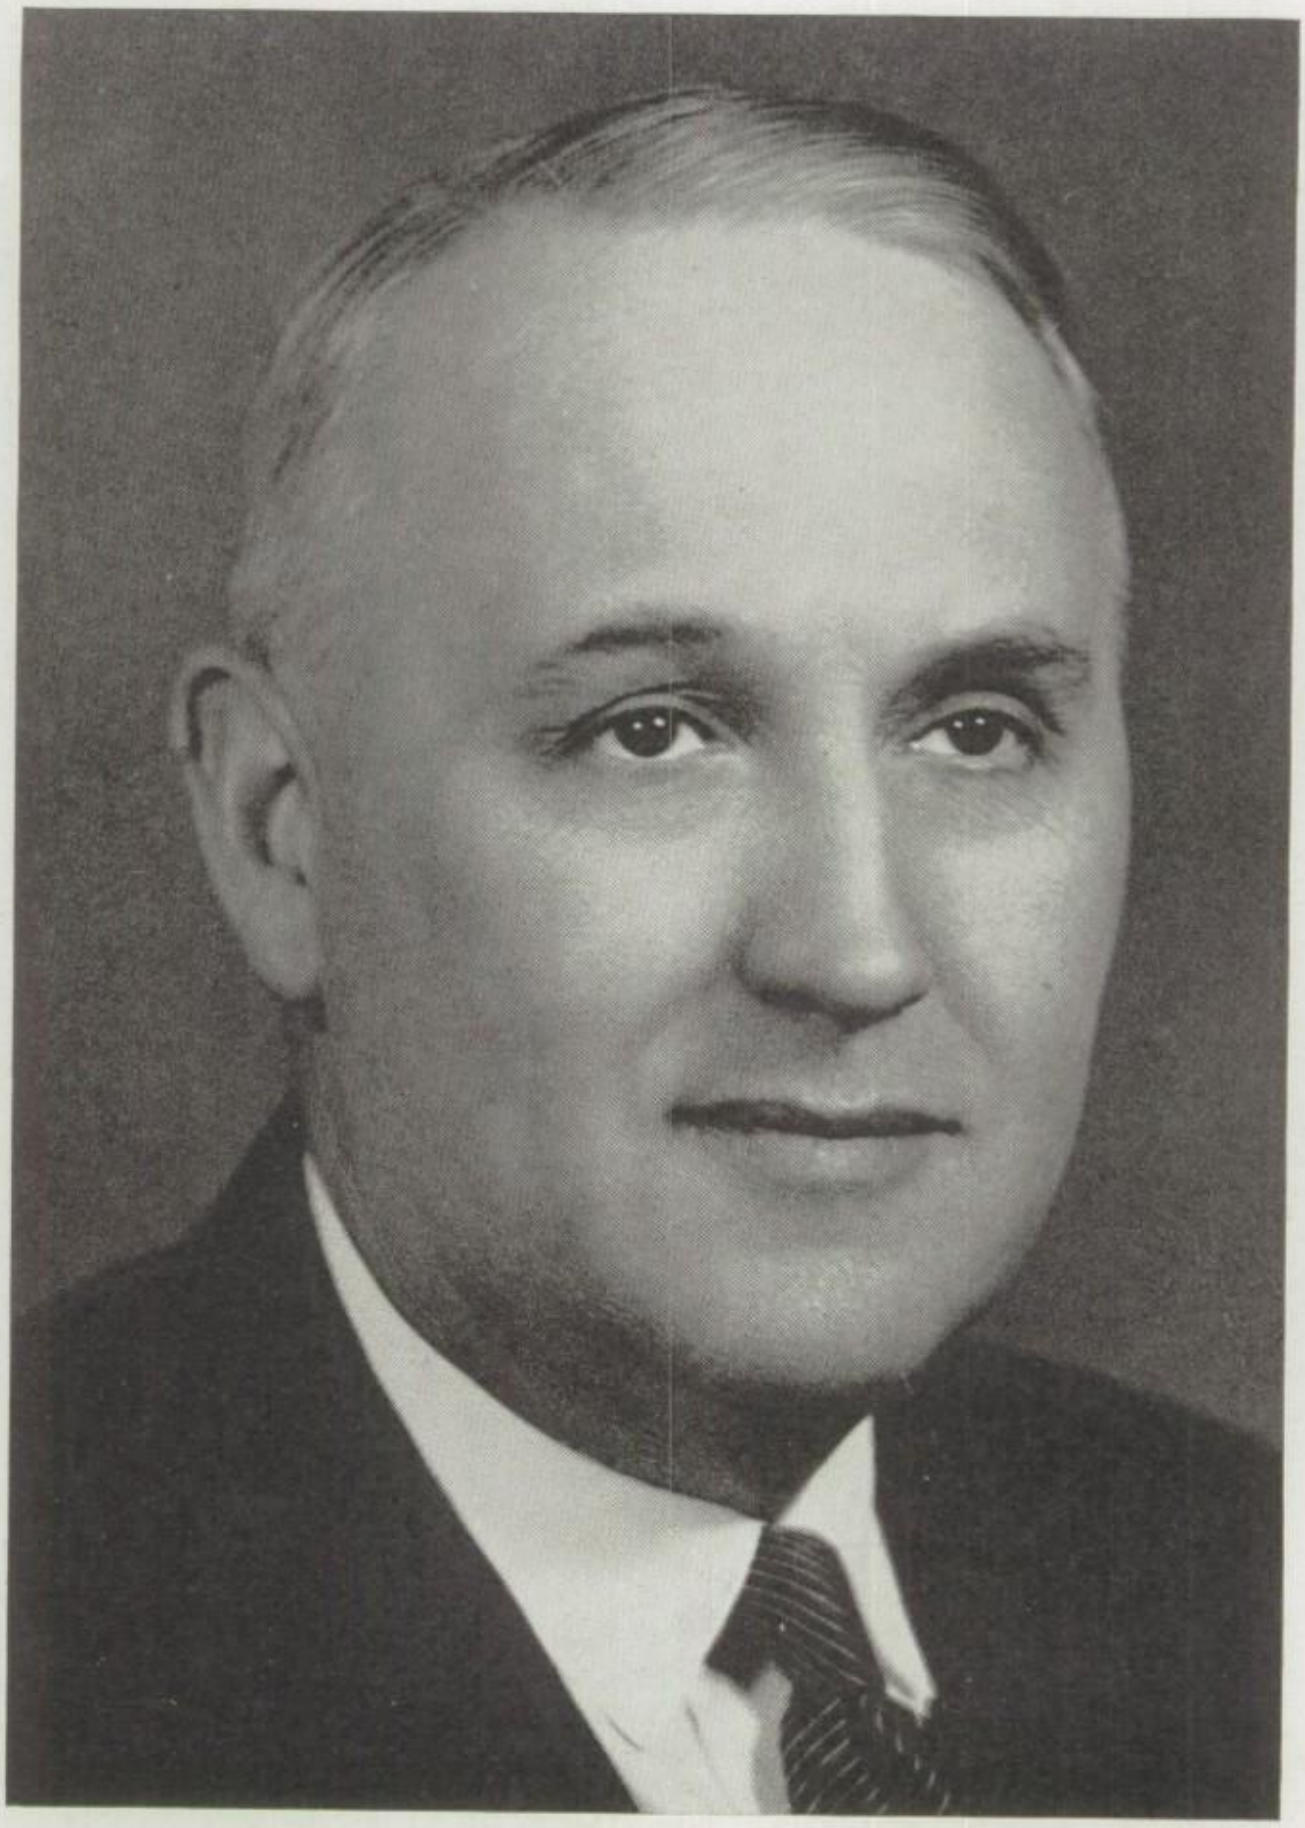


PRODUCTIO

As the near-finished products move on their way toward final completion, the workers most responsible for the good results step modestly into the background. These workers are the DeVilbiss Faculty and Administrators. Not only have they successfully shaped the school's raw materials, but they have quickly taken over all-important duties such as Red Cross Volunteer Service, bond selling, U. S. O. work, and war production jobs. Not enough words of praise can be found for these workers who consider no job too small or too great.

CHIEFS

For activities outside the class room, our teachers officiated as club supervisors and also as chaperons for social functions. They established a precedent for all DeVilbiss students to follow by attending all those educational, cultural, and social programs presented throughout Toledo. They found time for study in many new fields. Their time after school, so valuable to them now, was spent in giving aid and advice to the students. Through their willing assistance, DeVilbiss was made a home to come to during the day.



E. L. BOWSHER, Superintendent

No plant can function smoothly without a general manager, and it is upon Mr. E. L. Bowsher that the responsibility of the workers and the problems of production rest. He impartially controls many factories, making his influence felt in all. His is the duty of selecting capable production chiefs and maintaining them in the positions where they do their best work.

He cooperates with our supervisors and those of many other plants to help control absentee workers in all districts. By assuming charge of all plant records, he has on hand a complete knowledge of all necessary changes in politics and production personnel. Only a man with great executive capabilities could carry on the job as well as Mr. Bowsher is doing.

MERRITT C. NAUTS, Principal

Behind every large business there is a man who is the guiding hand. In the case of DeVilbiss that man is Mr. Merritt C. Nauts, our production manager. It is he who skillfully directs the policies of this organization with an efficient but modest manner. Under his capable management our raw materials are directed through the intricate mazes of production from the time they enter the factory until they emerge as finished products. He arranges for programs and speakers who work with the assembly line (our teachers) to turn out the best results after four years of mass production. Always on hand to inaugurate and enlarge new fields of activity, our production manager has proved himself indispensable to our war effort. May we present an "E" for efficiency to Mr. Nauts.

Arthur Diller
Dean of Boys

Apprehending and reprimanding absentee workers is an important position in any industry, and to this task go the entire energies and time of our supervisor, Mr. Arthur Diller, Dean of Boys. His chief duty to this factory is to make the rough castings which are then turned over to the assembly line for a long period of shaping and polishing. His efforts have helped to keep our plant functioning smoothly.

Mildred Pasch
Dean of Girls

To Miss Mildred Pasch we give our thanks for quietly and efficiently taking in hand the duty of upholding the morale of our huge factory. As adviser to the social commissioner she has attempted to and succeeded in cooperating with our governing body. She works in conjunction with Mr. Diller to control absentee workers. By her untiring efforts one almost sees the responsibility and well-being that surrounds her wherever she may go.

To our foremen, Mr. Adam Poffenbaugh and Mr. Frank Gordon, we present our thanks and appreciation for the never-ending efforts they have made for our welfare. They give us their best during the regular period of their work and then lend us cheerful cooperation in watching over our special activities. They insure us pleasant, healthful conditions where our products are being made, and they promote a sincere feeling of loyalty to a clean, efficient plant. Every worker and every production chief will attest to the fact that it is through the efforts of these two and their co-workers that our plant is run more efficiently and smoothly than ever before. Honesty, capability, and cooperation are only a few of their many attributes, and our plant shall be ever grateful to them for their help. To every teacher who calls for their aid or to every student whose lock has been fixed comes a knowledge and appreciation of what they have done and what they are doing for you and me and everybody.

What labor-management committees are to industry, the student council is to DeVilbiss, affording an opportunity, through student representation, to assist in solving school problems. Under the guidance of President Phillip Bockley, it has remained an active and efficient body. The Council conforms to a constitution very similar to that of our national government. The purpose of this group is to better the general welfare of the school—to offer leadership of, by, and for the students. It helps to make DeVilbiss a truly democratic school.

FROM RAW MATERIALS

In those distant pre-war days, our books were symbols of drudgery— a task to be quickly finished before play could begin. We enjoyed ceaseless laughter at the first hesitant attempts of the freshmen to become acquainted with their new surroundings. As sophomores and juniors we advanced to recognition within the school, entering various organizations which would give us publicity and self-confidence. As seniors we looked forward to graduation and social activities—to cram everything we could into those few short months before college.

TO FINISHED PRODUCTS

Unity is the word for all to follow, and DeVilbiss has responded to its call remarkably well. From the newest freshman to the best-equipped senior comes aid in Red Cross collections, war stamps and bond purchasing, and Community Chest contributions. Shall we see how our students are transformed into efficient, operating units? The new materials come in many forms from different sources, and are immediately placed on the assembly line. As the years progress, the materials are shaped and polished. Each class has merged to form a solid front, united during this period of war.

This diary of days will represent
A day of each month and how it was spent.

A day of importance to you and to me
In our DeVilbiss--a living history.

These memories of ours will always live long
In the hearts of the students and those who have gone.

They can't help remembering the fun that they had
At the dances and games that were always a fad.

Football, basketball still have prevailed
And our school spirit for them never has failed.

At the dances the boys were few
For Uncle Sam pointed out "your country needs you."

Now this diary of days is about to start
In a year in which you have played a part.

May you always remember evermore
This happy year of '43 and '44.

Kaky

September-School-No School

Before school hardly started
We faced a serious situation,
Due to the fact there was a strike
Which gave us a week's vacation.

November-50 Yard Dash

The football season came to an end
With the Libby-DeVilbiss game
Although our team met with defeat
Our spirit remained the same.

October-Jumpin' Jive

Getting back to the books
Did not take a long time
But with the Student Council Dance,
It made everyone feel fine.

December-Dribbling On

December 3 is a noted date,
With our "top 5" being the reason
For the defeat of Central on their floor
Marked the beginning of the basketball season.

January-Brain Work

Reviewing, studying and cramming
Are the key-words for us all
For in this month of finals,
We either rise or fall.

February-Talents Shine

Singing, dancing, acting
Occupies much of every day
For the Deviltries rehearsals
Are well along their way.

March-J-Hop

This one's on the Juniors
A dance over which they rule
They're the ones who can put it over
The coming leaders of the school.

May-To The Seniors

This comes but once a lifetime
A senior prom for YOU
And this year showed our forces,
In khaki,green and blue.

June-Memories

Your day of graduation,
Will hold its own within your heart
And you'll fondly keep the memory
Of the class of which you were a part.

The class of '44 is leaving,
The class of '45 is near,
The calendar keeps moving
Making way for the next new year.

MARIAN SMITH - ROOM 102

Let us look at a composite picture of 102. Our freshman would be 63 inches tall, weigh about 120 pounds. His hair is light brown, his eyes blue. He has at least one brother and sister. His favorite food is steak; he likes blue and red. He tunes in on Bob Hope, Harry James, Bing Crosby, Lux Radio Theatre, the Hit Parade, Take It or Leave It, and baseball games.

His song preferences range from Ave Maria, the Grand March from Aida, The Long, Long Trail, Army Air Corps, to Besame Mucho and the latest boogie woogie.

Now let's look at us as a group. All but ten are Toledo-born. Larry comes from South Carolina, Pat from Massachusetts, Doris from Pittsburgh, the others from Michigan or Indiana. 56% of our parents are native Ohioans. We have eleven brothers in Service now.

In sports Larry represented us on the lightweights, and although we didn't distinguish ourselves in intramurals, another year is coming.

Our pet annoyance is "dishes," but radio ads, unpatriotic citizens, back-slappers, dictatorial people, gossips, carrying books, homework, noisy restaurants, the point at which the radio serial ends—all these we can do without.

We like to read Assignment in Brittany, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay, Gone with the Wind, Black Stallion, My Son, My Son, The Yearling, Treasure Island, Dorothy Parker's poems, and mysteries.

Half of us have no pets, but the other have fifteen dogs, eight cats and one hundred fifty-two goldfish. Oh, yes, Patricia has a woolly duck almost her own age.

Our homeroom officers are: President, Duane Hall; Vice-President, Lisle Nied; Secretaries, Joanne Markley and Carmen Kniess; Treasurer, Douglas Mooney. Our representatives are: Student Council and Student Court, John Dunseith; Prism Solicitor, Virginia Kitzman; Pot-O-Gold Solicitor, Sara Jo Strain; Red Cross, Ellen Segar; War Stamps, Owen Kriege; Boys' Athletics, Larry Andrews; Girls' Athletics, Betty Northrup.

No doubt your homeroom has many of the same interests, but we are the largest group of freshmen and are happy that we are so congenial. Next year we hope to add more names to our eight on the honor roll.

For our first year at DeVilbiss, we of 113 chose the following students to guide us and "show us the way:" President, Ann Woodruff; Vice-President, Mary Erler; Secretary-Treasurer, Ann Hamilton.

An important part of school life is to be well represented in all activities, and for our envoys of good-standing we selected these members: Red Cross, Lou Stansbury; Student Council, Jim Gover; Pot-O-Gold, Smiley Goerlick; Prism, Ann Hamilton.

113 has been doing its part in the war effort by buying bonds and stamps regularly each week. Ronald Raab purchased a bond, while David Epstein, Richard McDowell, Nancy Rudes, Joan Sutton, Lawrence Walburn, Harriet Benford, Bill Dombrowski, Carollee Hefty, and Gerald Powlesland have become "old faithfuls" by their steady purchasing of stamps. We have done very well this year.

Although the basketball team this year was not too successful, 113 is still proud of it and the members: Jim Decker, Captain; Don Becker; Jim Gover; Bill Dombrowski; David Epstein, John Houk; Bob Riedmayer; George Valassis; Bill Meyers; and Jim Getzinger.

We have had many new experiences in our first year at DeVilbiss, and we think that our initial attempts at getting acquainted with and cooperating with other classes have been successful. We are looking forward to next year so that we can more ably prove our desire to help all.

FOREST BLANCHARD - ROOM 323

MARIE STOLL - ROOM 224

We of 224 are proud to have as a member of our homeroom one of the Freshman Class officers. Of course, we mean Kenny Cole, Vice-President—he may be small but he is certainly capable.

Cathy Brown is our Pot-O-Gold Solicitor, and Tom Simons is the Prism Solicitor. Our Student Council Representative is Kenny Cole.

We haven't managed to have many parties, but we are planning several for the near future.

A little less than half of our students usually are listed on the Honor Roll—We try to have more each time. We use our homeroom period for studying mostly, but being right next to the kitchen, the uh—peculiar—odors sometimes distract our attention. Maybe that's the reason for our low grades.

MARY FISCHER - ROOM 208

The four students who were elected to pilot Room 208 through this first year are: President, Charles Waidelick; Vice-President, Jack King; Secretary, Donna Crocker; Treasurer, Ruth Pallush.

As representatives to the various activities of DeVilbiss, we chose those students whom we thought were best qualified for the positions. As a member of the Student Council, we have Bill Teaderman; Auditorium, Adeline Katafiasy; Attendance, Richard Kalka; Boys' Athletics, Bill Kaser; Girls' Athletics, Donna Kirkman; War Stamp Solicitor, Betty McGannon; Prism Solicitor, Fadwa Haney; Red Cross Representative, Joyce MacKenzie.

Our room figured prominently on the honor roll with Marilyn Pettis, Marilyn Sutton, Marilyn Comsteller, Nancy Wagers, and Fadwa Haney, who are listed twice. Listed once were Donna Crocker, Joyce MacKenzie, Joanne Schwanbeck, and Bill Teaderman.

In every homeroom there are some students who find time to do extra things for the war effort. These patriotic members of our room are Betty McGannon and Fadwa Haney who knit and roll bandages for the Red Cross. Miss Fischer sets a fine example for all her charges by being a charter member of the Gray Ladies at Mercy Hospital.

Our members have cooperated so well that they have room 208 the highest rating in war stamp purchasing. Our campaign was helped greatly by bond-buyers Jack King, Carter Johnson, Charles Waidelick, and Eugene Fuller. Among the steady war stamp buyers who boost our total day-by-day are Allen Lang, Marilyn Pettis, Joanne Schwanbeck, and Eugene Fuller. Keep up the good work, kids!

Christmas vacation was an important event for us, and we entered into the spirit of the season by giving a party which lasted an hour. We invited Miss Burwick's freshman homeroom and entertained them with games and refreshments.

We've done our best this year and are looking forward to more and better years.

LELA GREUNKE - ROOM 219

As freshmen in our first year at DeVilbiss, we of homeroom 219 elected as President, Basil Ruhl, who we thought was best qualified to fill the office.

Our Student Council representative is Bess Fuller, and Phyllis Guerber organizes the Red Cross work. The war stamp sales are boosted over the top every Thursday by the patriotic students—only a mathematically-minded salesman like Basil Ruhl could so capably handle the sales. Virginia Seeman backs the Pot-O-Gold and urges subscriptions, while Bess Fuller attempts to reach 100% goal in Prism sales every other Wednesday.

During November, 1943, our social committee planned a skating party, and we are still talking about the wonderful time we had. We are looking forward to more of these events.

On December 17, 1943, we planned another party. Each student brought a box lunch to school and packed it away in his locker 'till third hour—those lunches then disappeared mighty fast. Many students entered their fourth hour class with ice cream on their mouths and a glow in their eyes from recalling the fun and feasting of the festive lunch.

Great things are expected of the boys' athletic team. We wish them all the luck in the world. Jim Hill is the Athletic Representative. We hope to have a good team this year and the next year and every year.

All the members of this homeroom are striving for a high scholastic standard. At the mid-semester mark, we were represented by thirteen pupils on the Honor Roll.

CARRIE WHALEY - ROOM 261

We are proud to announce that we have in our homeroom three officers of the Freshman Friendship Club. They are Molly Adams; Joanne Swarts, secretary; Beverly Colwell, chaplain. Other girls in the Club are Ginie Hinsey, Carol Brunskill, and Nancy Gass.

Boys who joined the Hi-Y are Louis Green, Jim Revell, Frazier Reams, and Clyde Stedcke. Our class is represented in the Girls' Athletic Society by Nancy Gass, Carol Brunskill, Ginie Hinsey, Joanne Swarts, and Marilyn Ingwerson.

We are cheering for our homeroom basketball team of which the members are Clyde Stedcke, Captain; Kenneth Ostrander; Sheldon Bowers; Gordon Mehan; Harry Clark; Walter Ahrens; and Jim Ando.

We had two parties the first semester. Our first was a Christmas party with Miss Kratz's freshmen during lunch and homeroom period. Kent Eidemiller entertained us with a boogie woogie jamboree. We also had an ice skating party at Ottawa Park. We played games and served refreshments in the shelter house.

The members of our Class who have been on the first semester Honor Roll both quarters were: Molly Adams, Robert Robbins, Lottie Bienka, Nancy Gass, Joanne Swarts, and Beverly Colwell.

ELIZABETH JOHNSON - ROOM 264

We, of room 264
Have things to tell you galore,
And we hope it won't be a bore.
We can boast,
For we've done the most
In counting the tax stamps of dear D. H. S.

The Toledo school that is the best and full of zest.
And the best of all is we have parties
'Cause we're s-m-a-r-t-i-e-s!
In plain language,
We think we're the best
In dear old D. H. S.

Our room contains many "supermen." We have counted, sorted, and bound one hundred thousand tax stamps. Pretty good, huh! There's more coming in all the time—it keeps us busy during homeroom periods.

We also have one sea scout in our room—Don Guinther. He's pretty proud of that navy blue suit.

There are forty pupils and one teacher, Miss E. B. Johnson, in room 264. As we look into the future, we see many happy events for us and Miss Johnson during the remaining three years at DeVilbiss.

CHARLOTTE BURWICK - ROOM 116

If you haven't heard the news about one of the best homerooms in DeVilbiss, the pupils of Miss Burwick's homeroom think it's about time you did—so this data is given to you in order that you may become better acquainted with us.

We had eleven students on the first Honor Roll and twelve on the second. The students who were on the Honor Roll twice were: Doris Ann Bowen, Warren Wise, Ray Cannon, Bonnie Vuille, Jean Davis, Mary Vosburgh, Virginia Linker, Jane Laures, Delores Dunning, and Joan Riser. Susan Maddock, Howard Minke, and Marjorie Southard each were on the Roll once. Congratulations!

Our magazine subscription drive went over the top—thanks to Howard Minke. Yes! Room 116 turned in over $311.00 worth of subscriptions. Our quota was $150.00. The class was divided into two teams—the Marines and the Seabees. The Marines were victorious, but not by a large sum.

Jacqueline Brott and Jack Evans deserve credit for making our class 100% in P. T. A. memberships. Fifteen of our mothers spent one Wednesday afternoon getting acquainted.

We have various activities in 116. Many students work outside school. We have musical talent, interesting hobbies, and intelligence. It can't be said that we haven't contributed our best to DeVilbiss.

Betty Lou Kearns is our social chairman, and she ably takes care of her duties. Among other things, she collects the money for war stamps and bonds. Assisting her at all times is Dorothy Slowinski. Their capability is attested to by our current total of war stamp purchases. This total was boosted by the steady buying of Malcolm Rohrer, Barbara Moon, and Dick Runion.

Our Public Relations man is busy Mark Vance. We are well represented on the Student Council by Bob Rogers, who also served as Magazine Drive Representative. The Prism sales go over big due to the energy of Pat Davis. Our tax stamps are taken in hand by Dick Runion. Lucille Reynolds keeps us informed about Red Cross events. Jane Laibe watches over our interests by being the representative to the freshman dance.

We have a very patriotic young man in 262. He is Clarence Yeager, a Civilian Defense Messenger for Uncle Sam.

Our room Mothers are Mrs. W. H. Rohrer and Mrs. I. Peterson.

Our Boys' Athletic Representative is Don Simon, the captain of "The Flying Tigers" our basket ball team. His teammates are Dick Runion, Jim Wilkins, Paul Hock, Al Saliba, and Jim Walker. The Girls' Athletic Representative is Jane Thurston. The girls don't have a team, but some of them belong to the Girls' Athletic Society.

GERALDINE LARKIN - ROOM M-18

The members of freshman homeroom M-18 elected these students as officers: President, James Huffer; Vice-President, Dick Henning; Secretary, Janice Spencer; Sergeant-At-Arms, Beverly Brown.

We chose our representatives from thoses tudents who we thought were best equipped for the duties. They are: Student Council, Don Weber; Red Cross, Marilyn Warner; Pot-O-Gold, Ruth Recknagel; Boys' Athletics, Bob Terry; Girls' Athletics, Janice Spencer; Prism Solicitor, Jack Hazle; War Bond Solicitor, Jim Zander.

We have purchased war stamps, contributed membership to the American Red Cross, and helped to fill a Red Cross box.

In our own words, we say that our homeroom "just isn't a study hall where you are quiet and reserved all the time, and our adviser isn't a gloomy teacher but a human being like ourselves," a "place to get acquainted with your friends" and "discuss school affairs;" to "talk about things that are currently happening to you—if you have no work to do," it is a time "to get some of the homework done that you forgot to do the night before;" "a place to relax;" and "a breathing spell in the day."

But most important of all, think many of the students, is that a homeroom "gives you a chance to solve your problems with the help of your homeroom teacher," and "a place to go in case of trouble."

Two of our boys think it is "the best part of the day," while it was observed by one student that "our homeroom, by having officers, is learning little by little about self-government. This will be useful to us later." "It is a place to respect more than any other place in school, because it is our home in school."

Two of our members, Bob Terry and Don Weber, play on the freshman basketball team. Another boy, Jim Huffer, is photographer for the Pot-O-Gold Staff.

This is only a freshman class, but some day it will be a senior class and, we hope, one of the finest in DeVilbiss High School.

PAULINE BACKUS - ROOM 213

In homeroom 213, there are four times as many boys as girls, so naturally most of the offices are held by the boys. Donald Kuehn, the President of the class, is also our very fine Prism Representative. Our Vice-President is Herbert Romberger who, beside being our Pot-O-Gold Agent, is the boy who plays the bugle each morning at the flag-raising in front of the school. Mary Lou Hayne is our efficient Secretary-Treasurer and also our representative for the Freshman Dance.

The boys in this class have the duty of raising the flag in front of the school each morning, and lowering it each evening with appropriate ceremonies. The boys were selected in their English and General Mathematics classes as being students with good attitudes toward their work and school affairs. The ones who have been chosen almost every week are: Steve Moschetti, Ed Zokowich, Herb Romberger, Bill Moore, Norman Weber, Richard France, Sam Moran, and Robert Hummon.

We have participated well in all DeVilbiss Red Cross activities, and Robert Hummon represents us in the work. Dorothea Guisinger collects our money for War Bonds and Stamps while Gladys Jones is in charge of the collection of sales tax stamps which are turned in to the school.

Our homeroom usually looks smaller than it really is because a number of our members work in the cafeteria during the period. Norrene Kane, Lois Sawade, Richard France, and Dale Hastings have worked there all year.

Outside of school many pupils have part-time jobs. The girls take care of children and help their mothers at home, while the boys have served as theater ushers, garage helpers, factory cafeteria helpers, and on various other jobs. This summer several boys expect to make money with a good size lawn-cutting business.

Since many pupils in this room are already sixteen, we sincerely hope the war will be over by the time we are juniors so all of us may continue our schooling at DeVilbiss.

PIERRE PASQUIER - ROOM 205

Mr. Pasquier's freshman homeroom is proud to declare their loyalty to their country as well as to DeVilbiss High. The proof of this statement is found in their total sales of war bonds and stamps, which amount to about four hundred dollars. This total is partly accounted for by Bob Zeddis' purchases which now equal one hundred and fifty dollars.

Perhaps you may think that we are an unusually small class, but one hundred and seven dollars worth of magazines sold, shows that sometimes quality is better than quantity.

The "up-and-at-'em" spirit has been displayed by Jean Shaw, who generously contributed five dollars to the March of Dimes fund, and sold twenty-five dollars in magazine subscriptions to barely outsell Jim Strub, who reached a twenty-two dollar total.

As a member of the Junior Red Cross, Mr. Pasquier's homeroom has contributed freely to this great cause. Carol Bevens is our Representative.

Nine of us were listed on the Honor Roll: Barbara Cook, Nanette Drake, Kathleen Henry, Jimmy Moffett, Suzanne Niles, Patricia Paracheck, Joan Sanford, James Strub, and Susan Thurston. Three of these students—Jimmy Moffett, Suzanne Niles, and James Strub have inspired us to greater scholastic efforts by their outstanding record of all A's.

Our basketball team was composed of Howard Mercer, Bob Zeddis, John Peterson, Bill Tabbert, and Bob Young.

Mr. Cruey's freshman homeroom certainly believes in starting their first year right and have won a few honors for their class already. Dave Jefferys, one of our classmates, received the Grand Prize in the Magazine Subscription Drive for selling over one hundred dollars worth himself. Room 210 also contributed six members to the honor roll. Sally Koepp and Porter McDonell were the only two from our room in the first quarter. But in the second quarter, Jayne Burmeister, Melvin Holmes, Dave Jefferys and Al Leake, in addition to Sally and Porter entered the select group of honor students.

Bob Overman is the President of Homeroom 210 and Sally Koepp has the Vice-Presidential duties. Kathy Hoyt holds the office of Secretary-Treasurer. Norma Sheets, our War Savings Solicitor, sold Bonds to Al Leake, Chuck Lavine, Dave Jefferys and herself in addition to her sale of Stamps to a majority of the class. Our usual "A" record in the distribution of Prisms is due to Sally Koepp's persuasive sales talks. Under the direction of Joe Heiny, Room 210 has liberally given to the Red Cross. Betty Hepfinger took charge of the sale of Pot O' Gold subscriptions in our room. Another of our most important officers is Eileen Heiny who, as Student Council Representative, was head of the magazine drive in this class. Dave Jefferys is a member of the "Student Stomp" dance committee.

Anna Lee Barger, Jane Burmeister and Kathy Hoyt are on the membership list of the Freshman Friendship Club as well as being active in the Girls' Athletic Society. Dave Jefferys and Bob Overman are loyal Hi-Y boys.

The homeroom basketball team was our pride and joy. Room 210 ended the season with four wins and two setbacks for a neat average of .667. The boys who composed our team and carried it through a successful season are: Joe Heiny, Dave Myers, Ralph Spencer, John Weber and Captain Dave Jefferys.

Our room certainly hopes to have as outstanding a year during the next term as we have had as freshmen.

DAISY VAN NOORDEN - ROOM 152

"We're on the war path now." This is the slogan we have chosen to spur the students on in our jeep drive. To make the drive exciting, two teams represented by two toy jeeps are racing across the front of the room. There is no doubt of our reaching our goal. Why? Because "We're on the war path now." Leaders of the teams are: Team One—Lois Cannon, Howard Warner; Team Two—Nancy Nemire and Charles Woodfill.

Our group represents nine different elementary schools, and contains students of all sizes. Our tallest members are Robert Grimes and Nancy Nemire; our shortest, Bill Rudy and Pat Gross. Our youngest member is Harry Hammond.

In athletics, we boasted of Anson Spohler on the lightweight football team. In freshman basketball, we had Robert Grimes, Anson Spohler, and Charles Woodfill.

GRACE KRATZ - ROOM 249

The "Forty-Niners" of Room 249 are a group of fresh-looking freshmen devoted to DeVilbiss and its cause, headed by our adviser, Miss Kratz.

Our first task was to elect officers. We chose Bill Brewer, President; Robert Elkins, Vice-President; Phyllis Koder, Secretary; and John Brenner, Treasurer. We also elected Jerry Emery as Student Council Representative; Barbara Coble, Girls' Athletic Representative; Robert Elkins, Boys' Athletic Representative; and Marcella Keller, Red Cross Representative. Jay Wright is our Prism salesman.

Our Red Cross Christmas boxes landed in a nursery school in Northants, England. The acknowledgment indicated that the children were well-pleased with their gifts.

At Christmas time we enjoyed a party with Mrs. Whaley's room. There were refreshments, entertainment, and dancing.

For a little special recreation our homeroom boys organized a basketball team consisting of the following players: Captain and center, Bill Brewer; forwards, Dick Ruehlin and Herb Ducat; guards, Charles Ball and Jay Wright; substitutes, Jim Cherry and Tom Gorton. The girls managed to lend aid with their cheers.

Our accomplishments thus far are few. Perhaps as the years pass, we can and will improve in many ways and become a wiser and better group with the aid of DeVilbiss. Although we do not have forty all "A" students in our group, we believe that all forty of us can and will co-operate to the best of our ability.

We are very proud of the fact that we purchased a War Bond, during the Fourth War Loan Drive, which we have presented to DeVilbiss as a gesture of recognition to what all the school is doing for us.

BEATRICE LOUY - ROOM 253

We elected John Stoffel and Jack Henry as our Social Chairmen; our Athletic Chairman is Jim Krupp; Student Council Representative, Margery Williams; Prism Representative, Marilyn Miller; Auditorium Representative, Fred Schultz; Pot-O-Gold Representative, Faith Buttner.

Our magazine subscription drive for 1943 was very successful. The leader in 253 was John Stoffel who reached a total of forty-five dollars.

We are proud of the two boys in our room who are on the freshman basketball team—Manning Spooner and David Davis.

BLANCHE LUTHER - ROOM 226

The homeroom which, by far, puts the most emphasis on "home" is Mrs. Blanche Luther's freshman group. The students of Room 226 eagerly await that half-hour period and what Tadite wouldn't? They have had many parties including a picnic last fall, and a musical program, in which six talented members of the class participated. All plans for such functions are under the supervision of the room's social committee.

As is the case with our school-spirited freshmen, Mrs. Luther's class enjoyed 100 per cent Prism sales everytime with Bruce Chambers as Solicitor.

Howard Frank, the Boys' Athletic Representative, is the founder and captain of our fine intramural basketball team. The members of the team are: Howard Frank, center; Allan Brogan, guard; Bruce Chambers, guard; Phil Nietzel, forward and Charles Petro, forward; Bob Feltus, Joe Hendrikx, Dick Homan, and Tom Swisher serving as capable reserves.

Barbara Kuhr, our Pot O' Gold Solicitor, announces that most of the class has purchased subscriptions to the year-book. Virginia Brubaker is the Girls' Athletic Representative. With Beverly Burtch as chairman, our room has bought defense stamps regularly every week. Our room certainly believes in service to the school for we have set one thousand dollars worth of tax stamps as our goal for this year. Chairman Donald McDole is sure that Room 226 will reach its quota.

Another school activity in which our room led was the U. S. O. project. Both boys and girls contributed fudge and cookies to this worthy cause. Mrs. Luther, an active member in this organization, was given sugar through the U. S. O. to provide the students with enough to make an ample supply of sweets.

Pat Ellis and Sam Maran, Red Cross Representatives, brought the room into first place during the Red Cross Roll Call. The room, divided into two groups, competed with the understanding that the loser would treat the room to ice-cream. It was a happy party for Sam Maran's group although the other half enjoyed it just as well.

Room 153 is all out for victory. Some of our high bond buyers are Dick Gilbert with one hundred twenty-five dollars; Paul Kenney, two hundred twenty-five dollars; Dick Flowers, two hundred dollars; Jim Perry, one hundred twenty-five dollars; Betty Allen, Jim Root, Don Christensen, Edwin Johnson, seventy-five dollars; Ruth Doberzykowski, Doris Robertson, fifty dollars; Mona Moss, twenty-five dollars.

Many of the pupils have interesting wartime jobs. Donald Mossing works in a grocery store, while Don Shreffler is employed in a drug store. Those girls who watch children are: Barbara Sawtelle, Pat Binding, Joanne Leavell, Rosita Erausquin, and Betty Domito.

FREDERICA HANSON - ROOM 209

In the month of September, 1942, thirty-six students were assigned to Room 209 for their homeroom. After completing two years under the guidance of Miss Hanson, the class sincerely hopes that the next two years will be as happy.

The class is lead by President Jim Hunt, with an aide in Vice-President Ed Rommel. Mary Ann Papenfuss, the Secretary, takes notes on our business meetings and Sue Brown holds office as Treasurer. Nancy Donnelly and Ann Cravens are Co-Representatives of the Red Cross. Eleanor Channell is the Pot-O-Gold Solicitor and Shirley Dolgin is Prism Salesman. Another of Sue Brown's duties is to represent us in the Student Council.

Room 209 buys War Bonds and Stamps from Jacqueline Finch. Mary Ann Papenfuss and Duanne Buschmann see to it that our room is well represented at athletic meetings.

Miss Hanson's class gives liberally to all charitable causes such as the March of Dimes, the Red Cross Campaign, the filling of Christmas boxes, and the Community Chest. We were particularly successful in the DeVilbiss Magazine Subscription Drive. Out total sales were $232.00. Harold Ray, of Room 209, won a $25 War Bond in the drawing.

Carol Gallup, Roberta Kammeyer, Mary Ann Papenfuss who has received her letter, Evelyn Pilz, Dorothy Reed and Marietta Seavolt are active members of the Girls' Athletic Society. Mary Ann Papenfuss and Evelyn Pilz are the "Friendship Girls" from our room. James Gilliland, Bill Shuler, and Bill Lagos are Room 209's athletes on the lightweight football squad.

Both the class and the teacher are extremely pleased over the fact that almost thirty-three per cent of the room is on the honor roll. Eleven students—Sue Brown, Eleanor Channel, Ann Cravens, Lorraine DeSmet, Shirley Dolgin, Nancy Donnelly, Roberta Kammeyer, Mary Ann Papenfuss, Evelyn Pilz, Carl Thielman, and Betty Wolfe have made the grade.

Room 201, besides being one of the top-ranking sophomore homerooms, has the honor of having for its teacher, the Sophomore Class Advisor, Miss Eva Samsen. We also have as a classmate, Rush Friddle, who is Vice-President of the Sophomore Class.

Colleen Sweeny is the President of our homeroom and assisting her as Vice-President is Anna Lee Blackstone. To write the minutes of our business meetings and to collect money to finance parties is the homeroom duty of Dick Warrick as Secretary-Treasurer. Rush Friddle represents Room 201 in Student Council. Under Joanne Ahlfors' supervision, the room filled Red Cross boxes and gave generously to the Children's Relief Fund. Carol Dielman works her hardest and succeeds in keeping Prism sales near 100 per cent. Virginia Grocott, the Pot-O-Gold Solicitor, takes care of our yearbook subscriptions. Virginia also is the Girls' Athletic Representative. Paul Britton is Boys' Athletic Representative. Largely because of Dick McConnell's faithfulness in performing his duty, our class has purchased a good number of war stamps and bonds.

The so-called "weaker-sex" in our room certainly goes all out for the Sophomore Friendship Club. Nearly half our girls are members of this up-and-coming organization. The "Friendship Girls" are: Joanne Ahlfors, Margaret Cole, Virginia Grocott, Lois Ann Levey, Merrijo Luebka, Pat Potter, and Colleen Sweeny.

The boys participating in sports events are Dick McConnell and Rush Friddle, who played first-string on the lightweight basketball team.

Virginia Grocott has received her "D" for outstanding sportsmanship in Girls' Athletics. Two other G. A. S. members, Joan Rahla and Helen Wetnight, have hopes of winning their letters by June.

Studies, however, have not been neglected by this active homeroom. Several students have been on the honor roll at some time during their two years at DeVilbiss but the consistent high-grade pupils are: Carol Eichman, Rush Friddle, Virginia Grocott, Colleen Sweeny and Gurdon Tarbox.

ALICE GERDING - ROOM 103

The photographs shown on this page are not those of beauty contestants. They are only the pictures of the students in Miss Alice Gerding's sophomore homeroom. Some of them could win prizes though, couldn't they?

The executives of our class are: Sue Warnke, President; Judy Frease, Vice-President; Charlotte Young, Secretary; and Bill Bishop, Treasurer. Joanne Birkenkamp is our member to the Student Council and Viola Radcliffe is the Red Cross Representative. Joyce Kurtz is responsible for the sale of year book subscriptions.

Miss Gerding is proud of the fact that, contrary to usual sophomoric standards, the number of her students on the Honor Roll has increased. The total number of pupils who have attained Honor Roll rating is sixteen. Those who have been on every single time are: Joanne Birkenkamp, Milton Boesel, Judy Frease, Melvin Mull, Sue Warnke, and Roger Woodruff.

Alice Ankney, Doris Ettenhofer, and Don Wiltse help Mr. Diller by serving on the hall patrol. Phyllis Bunner and Phyllis Burns do their bit by patroling the library. Serving as after school workers, Jim Louth, Tom Messinger, Barbara Radke, Don Rohweder, Morton Schomer, Bill Skinner, Chuck Volker, Beatrice Wagner, Gloria Walker, and Don Wiltse replenish the usually depleted purses and help relieve the labor shortage in Toledo shops.

Belonging to DeVilbiss clubs is a popular trend of this sophomore group. Gloria Walker, Bertha Compton, Joanne Birkenkamp, Phyllis Burns and Doris Ettenhofer are members of the G. A. S. The Dramatic Club has Beatrice Wagner, Bertha Compton, Betty Huntley and Melvin Mull. John Kirkwood and Bill Bishop are prominent in boys' athletics. The Sophomore Friendship Club claims two of us—Joanne Birkenkamp and Phyllis Burns. Shouting because they haven't been mentioned yet, are these boys who proudly hang a little pin on their chests each morning, signifying that they are active Hi-Y members—Don Roweder, Melvin Mull, Bill Skinner and Chuck Volker.

GENEVIEVE STOWE - ROOM 203

"There's the bell" announces someone in Room 203 and there begins another homeroom period for the students in Miss Stowe's sophomore homeroom. This second-year group could be classed as typical of many homerooms in DeVilbiss. Besides participating in school activities, we have a real reason for taking interest in such endeavors as the Jeep Drive, War Bond and Stamp sales and the Red Cross campaign because eight of our members have brothers in the service. Betty Huepenbecker and Rose Ruiss each have three brothers fighting for Uncle Sam. Nancy Dale, Joan Ladig, Chuck Sawyer, Lola Straus, Bob Waters and Phillip Whitacker are either younger brothers or sisters to one of "our boys."

As the result of our presidential election, Bob Waters is head man and Joan Bilkousky, second in charge as Vice-President. Lola Straus capably fills the office of Secretary-Treasurer. Our class is represented in the Student Council by Rose Ruiss. Under the direction of Gerry Dombrowski the class gives generously to the Red Cross both at Christmas time and during its annual drive for funds. Wilma Wise is the girl, who, every other Wednesday, shouts, "Prisms for sale." Henrietta Seavolt was chosen Girls' Athletic Representative and Chuck Sawyer represents us in boys' athletics. Selling war bonds and stamps is the duty of Betty Huepenbecker. Jane King is our Pot-O-Gold solicitor.

We can boast of four students in the class who have been on the honor roll every time it has been published. The girls who hold this proud claim are Joan Bilkousky, Jane King, Roberta Smith and Lola Straus. Come on, boys. See if you can catch up with us.

The fact that they are kept busy both in school and afterwards with that unwelcome homework does not keep some of our students from continuing their study of music and tap dancing. These energetic members of our room are Lola Straus, Howard Mackay, Chuck Sawyer, and Rose Ruiss.

FLOY JACOBS - ROOM 324

"Reuben, Reuben, I've been thinkin'
What a grand world this would be
If the men were all transported
Far beyond the northern sea."

Well, the girls in Miss Jacobs' sophomore group don't feel quite that antagonistic towards the boys but it does seem as though "Rachel's" dream came true as far as our homeroom is concerned. For there is nary a boy in Room 324. We are just twenty-nine contented girls minus Evelyn Frankfurt, who stays in Miss McHugh's room and Carolyn Schliebner, who helps in the cafeteria during this half-hour period.

Madame President is Marianne Chambers, who also is Co-Chairman of the Sophomore Dance, "The Fool's Holiday." Helping to lead the class is the Vice-President, Joan DeAngelo. Joyce Walters acts as Secretary in Room 324 and Margie McNaull, Treasurer, is in charge of our "deposit of wealth." Jean Ann Schroder reports to her feminine audience the details of Student Council meetings. All Red Cross collections for Christmas boxes and contributions to the Red Cross fund come thru Barbara Pennypacker's line of duty as Red Cross Representative. Our near 100 per cent Prism sales can be attributed to Marilyn Simpson's honest efforts to reach her quota. Marilyn Zanville, Pot-O-Gold Solicitor, announces a successful year in the selling of year book subscriptions.

Under the direction of Jean Ann Schroder, our so-called "weaker sex" really got in there and worked. We sold over a hundred dollars worth of magazine subscriptions. This averaged into the five dollar quota set for each student in DeVilbiss.

Miss Jacobs' room is exceptionally interested in the new High School Canteen project. At least eleven of us have paid our preliminary registration fee. We hope that by the time we are Juniors, this will be a flourishing organization because we certainly like the idea.

Our room, in the two years of its existence, has kept five girls on the honor roll. Leona Blank, Marianne Chambers, Arlene Davis, Pauline Photos, and Donna Lee Waller, have maintained an excellent average.

Getting along very well without men, as you can see, we want to take this opportunity to introduce ourselves to DeVilbiss.

NELLE ANDERSON - ROOM 117

It isn't every homeroom in DeVilbiss that is increased by eight fine members. But that was the pleasant surprise that greeted Mrs. Nelle Anderson's sophomore room at the opening of the school term last September. We certainly drew from a number of schools as Paul Greenberg and LaBerta Russell came from Robinson Junior High, Doris Bell from Woodward, Dick Pio from Whitmer, Chester Bond from Scott, and Morris Hill returned from Macomber. Dolores Geisland and Roger McDonald were assigned to our class from other rooms. We welcome all of you into our homeroom!

Heading the list of class officers is President Fred Willis. Shirley Blinn was elected Vice-President. Serving as Secretary-Treasurer is Joan Spearing. Shirley Boote's homeroom duty is representing our class in the DeVilbiss Student Council. When Prism sales reach 100 percent, credit is due to our solicitor, Pat Pocotte. Room 117 enjoys giving money and gifts to the Red Cross. Our class representative is Shirley Blinn. Seeing to it that we're represented in both boys' and girls' athletics are Dick Pio and Beverly Brown. Another of Joan Spearing's tasks is collecting the subscription money for the Pot-O-Gold. With officers like these, it's no wonder we're one of the best sophomore homerooms.

How would you like to meet a real "cover girl?" Just come to Room 117. For we have Beverly Brown, whose picture can be found on the cover of the Red Cross Magazine for September, 1943.

RUTH LUKENS - ROOM 110

Page fifty-nine in this book is devoted entirely to pictures of the sophomores in Miss Lukens' homeroom and to a summary of their various activities in and outside of the class period. Room 110 has loaned several of its members to the different school clubs, the DeViltries, the intramural and lightweight teams, and the many social events of the Sophomore Class.

To Bill Brock was given the title, President of Room 110. Our group elected Walter Abbenzeller Vice-President. The officer who has charge of the minutes is Arthur Atkinson. Mary Jane Seybold supervises Girls' Athletics in our room and Joe Dersch, the Boys' Athletic Representative, sees to it that this homeroom is active in the diversified sports events at DeVilbiss. Our class understands well its partriotic duty to buy War Bonds and Stamps, for under the able direction of Barbara Moan, a good number of us have completed War Stamp Books and exchanged them for Bonds. Pat Monaghan is the class delegate to the Student Council. Managing the collection of Pot-O-Gold subscriptions is the service rendered to our class by Dale Landry. With officers as these we have successfully completed our second year in D. H. S.

Miss Lukens' group also enjoys extracurricular activities. Dale Landry and Walter Abbenzeller have won letters—Walter, playing first string on the lightweight basketball team.

We wouldn't be a bit surprised if one of our classmates turned out to be a star on Broadway. For these members of the Dramatic Club, Bill Brock, Katherine Heywood and Arlene Leonard, might rise to such a height.

We also have four outstanding honor roll students about whom we can boast. Bill Brock, Arlene Leonard, Barbara Moan and Arthur Atkinson are the grade-seeking pupils. Under the capable advisership of Miss Lukens, we hope to make many additions to the honor roll and to increase our prestige during the next two years as upperclassmen.

RAYMOND LOWRY - ROOM 217

When we call this a homeroom, we mean it in the best sense of the word. For it is "home" to Mr. Raymond Lowry's sophomores once a day all through the year. Guiding and guarding his young hopefuls is "Papa" Lowry. President Herbert Steele heads this group of students and Nancy Myers is second in charge. Harlan Smilack is Secretary of Room 217 and Betty Lou Yingling completes the list of executives as Treasurer. Jerry Mellor is the class choice for Student Council. Robert Vick is the Red Cross Representative. John Schaefer tries to keep us at ten per cent in our purchases of war bonds and stamps. Our outstanding Prism saleswoman is Phyllis Wood. Bill Nilsson, as Pot-O-Gold Solicitor, takes care of the payments for year book subscriptions. Wanda Carr is our Girls' Athletic Representative. Richard Fowler, as Boys' Athletic Representative, is the captain of the champion Sophomore Intramural Basketball Team. Mr. Lowry's prize-winning boys are: Jerry Mellor, John Schaefer, Harlan Smilack, Herbert Steele, Cecil Stickney and Captain Dick Fowler. The team is almost certain that they won more games but Captain Fowler maintains that we have five in the "win" column.

An interesting event in this homeroom was a Beauty Contest in which several names of our most handsome students were put on the slate. As the result, Maryann Croke reigns as Queen, while Alan Schloz rules as King of Room 217.

We also have three talented musicians in our midst. Bill Steffens and Cecil Stickney play in the school band. Robert Vick performs in the DeVilbiss orchestra.

We have contributed two of our members to the Civil Air Patrol. Gerald Geisbuhler and Bill Nilsson are the air-minded students.

During Mr. Lowry's convalescence, the class sent to their teacher the largest bouquet ever to be admitted into Toledo Hospital. It was a beautiful red, white, and blue arrangement nearly four feet high.

If we have all these accomplishments as sophomores, watch us when we're upper classmen.

AURELIA QUINN - ROOM 104

Miss Quinn's sophomore homeroom is one of the most representative second-year groups in the entire school. They have, as classmates, many of the famous students and are indeed lucky to have as their teacher, Miss Quinn, who is one of the advisers to the Senior Class.

Bob Ensign, an A-1 drummer in the DeViltries, is President of Room 104. Richard Gross takes care of the Vice-Presidential duties. Serving as Secretary of the homeroom is Barbara Harget. Ronald Schmidt is the Treasurer. Our class is kept well-informed concerning meetings of the Student Council by Representative Gloria Fricker. John Flick is our excellent Pot-O-Gold Solicitor. Under Charles Charpie's direction, our room gave liberally to the two Red Cross campaigns. Students purchased fifty-six dollars in War Stamps during the Jeep Drive with Joan Keller as the Solicitor. Our room returned many dollars worth of tax stamps to Harold Wainscott, the Tax Stamp Collector. When we buy way over seventy per cent in Prisms, the credit goes to Earnest Roehrs, who is also an efficient hall patroller. Girls' Athletics is headed by Betty Secor and Boys' Athletics, by Norbert Todd. Room 104 loans one member to the stage crew—Jack Fish.

James Arbaugh, John Flick, Lynn Paquette and Earnest Roehrs are the loyal boys who, every Thursday, travel down to the Y. M. C. A. as Sophomore Hi-Y members.

Five of our classmates are continually bettering their grades. They are now honor roll students and have the admirable ambition to remain high on the list through their next two years as upper classmen. Floyd Barrow, John Flick, Joan Keller, Bernice Reingruber, and Ronald Schmidt are these outstanding scholars. We certainly wish them every success!

Did you ever hear of any room contributing more boys to the Lightweight basketball team than our class? Bob Nappenbach and Norbert Todd are two of the best players on the first team with Richard Saxer and Russell Spindler as reserves. Richard Saxer and Dick Leverenz are a couple of our homeroom members on the Varsity Bowling Team. Norbert Todd and Bob Nappenbach were excellent sophomore gridders on the Varsity Football Team. We certainly hope that these boys will keep up their good work both for the glory of the Alma Mater and for the added prestige it bestows upon our homeroom.

OLLIE KLEE - ROOM 153

Another of those prominent sophomore homerooms is Mr. Ollie Klee's group. With Shelda Ryburn leading the class as President, our room has had a very successful year. At the beginning of the magazine subscription campaign our homeroom was determined to be among the first five rooms in DeVilbiss and at the completion of the drive we were in possession of third place. Assisting our president is Gerald LeRoy, the Vice-President. Eleanor Stone performs the double-duty of Secretary-Treasurer. Fred Rothacker represents Room 153 in the Student Council. With Carol Bancroft as Red Cross Representative our class gives generously to that worthy cause. Our two diligent solicitors are Mary Lou McCrory for the Pot-O-Gold and Florence Beran for the Prism. Mr. Klee's room has always been "A" in Prism sales. Two of our classmates are members of the school-paper staff. They are Betty Dolgin and Rose Marie Knaggs. Patricia Winn should be congratulated for her excellent work in selling war stamps to our homeroom. Those students who invested wisely in stamps almost every week are Carol Bancroft, Glenna Barnard, Florence Beran, Joanne Brehm, Bette Dolgin, Betty Fortlander, Rose Marie Knaggs, Jackie Miller, Constance Netter, Eleanor Stone, Betty Weick and Patricia Winn.

John Williams is the Boys' Athletic Representative and the founder of an intramural basketball team. Five of our girls interested in sports, Florence Beran, Constance Netter, Shelda Ryburn, Eleanor Stone, and Betty Weick, are members of the Girls' Athletic Society. Jackie Miller was our only classmate in the DeViltries.

Six homeroom members remained on the Honor Roll all year. The consistent students are: Robert Chapman, Patricia Etters, John Keiser, Constance Netter, Shelda Ryburn and Kenneth Schlegheck.

ANNE SUTTER - ROOM 206

One of the outstanding homerooms is Mrs. Sutter's second year class. Room 206 participates actively in both school and war-time activities and is well-known for its athletic prowess.

Finding that last year's officers had served us very well, our class voted them all a second term. Heading our class as President and Student Council Representative is Jackie Bodie; Paul De Witt is the War Stamp and Bond Salesman; Margie Stover, Red Cross Representative; Janice Nauts, Prism Solicitor; Eugene Rush, Pot-O-Gold Solicitor; Jean Decker, Girls' Athletic Representative; John Zingg, Boys' Athletic Representative.

The homeroom basketball team is small but efficient. Those cagers are Captain John Zingg, Bob Archer, Paul De Witt, Donald Kennedy and Don Mallett. John Stecker and John Zingg, who played first-string on the DeVilbiss Lightweight football team, have won their "Champs" letters.

But the girls are not to be outdone by the boys in our athletic homeroom. Jean Decker, Mary Jonas, Janice Nauts, Dorothy Rodemark and Zora Zirckel remain after school for sophomore girls' intramurals. Jean Decker already has her "D" and Dorothy Rodemark, Zora Zirckel and Janice Nauts hope to receive theirs in June.

Some students are members of the extra-curricular organizations in the school. Jean Decker, Mary Jonas and Janice Nauts are active in the Sophomore Friendship Club. In the Bible Study Club is Dorothy Rodemark. This year's members of the Sophomore Hi-Y are Sam Mulopulos and John Zingg.

Returning to school last September, we found that we had lost five of our class-mates to the two vocational high schools. But their loss was compensated by the addition of Bob Archer, Betty Britton, Beverly Grates and Margie Stager to our homeroom. We sincerely hope that our room will be able to enjoy together the rest of our days at "good old DeVilbiss."

S. B. EMERY - ROOM 119

Keep your eye on that homeroom at the end of the hall which is putting in its bid as the finest sophomore homeroom in DeVilbiss. Room 119, better known as "The Society for the Feebleminded," to quote Mr. Emery, is rapidly gaining fame and can boast already a few outstanding students and their achievements. Our teacher, Mr. Emery, keeps a fond eye on his little brood, hoping that we'll be remembered long after we're gone.

We could tell you about some of our members. For instance, we could mention that the 5-A Bob Buckley is a very well-liked President of our homeroom, or that the Vice-President, Al Kane, is an excellent football player. We could tell you that business men are not the only ones having good-looking secretaries. Ours is Dolly Malko who is also Red Cross Representative. The Treasurer, Joanne Hardy, hides her money brain behind a pretty face. Jerry Bargelt, a newcomer to our homeroom, was elected to Student Council. We could say that Charmaine Smith doubles as Girls' Athletic Representative and President of the Sophomore Friendship Club; that the Boys' Athletic Representative is Steve Danko; that Peggy Nauts, our Social Chairman, is a member of the Sophomore Class One Act Play Committee.

We could give you a hint about other students in our room—like the athletic Russ Moore and Dick Buckley; Mary Gallagher, a member of the Junior Monday Musicale; Marilyn Cannon, recently in a production of the Toledo Repertoire Little Theatre. Tommy Giha, our super Prism salesman; Edward Stebbins, a fine Pot-O-Gold Solicitor; our two outstanding artists, Wilda Jarrett and Bonny Deardorff; Sylvia Fishman, who every week increases our sales of bonds and stamps.

We could mention all these people but we won't "'cause our homeroom's just too modest."

JEANNETTE BRAND - ROOM 263

A cross-section of DeVilbiss students is gathered in Mrs. Brand's sophomore homeroom. The pupils are interested in all school activities as is easily seen by the number of scholars belonging to clubs and those participating in sports events.

The President of Room 263, is Carol Cromwell, who takes care of all administrative duties herself. Herbert Gill was elected by our class Student Council Representative. He has faithfully reported to us all the happenings at meetings and, as Representative, was in charge of our sale of magazine subscriptions. Kenneth Jordan, War Stamp Chairman, announces that a number of students have answered their country's plea to buy Bonds and Stamps. The Girls' and Boys' Athletic Representatives are, respectively, Patsy Hinde and Gene Smith. Elaine Sorgenfrei is our Pot-O-Gold Solicitor and has capably discharged her duty. The "A" Prism Salesman is May Rata Hall who has kept the class way above seventy percent. Under Sally Kendrick's watchful eye, we filled a Christmas box for a poor little child in some war-torn country and also contributed amply to gain membership in the Red Cross.

Room 263 is exultant over the fact that nine of its residents reached honor roll recognition. Those students whose grades merited them between seven and fifteen points are: Mary Kathryn Bettner, Raymond Burgess, Carol Cromwell, Suzanne Gross, Ruth Kane, Louise Milne, Joyce Mitchell, Jean Pray, and Norma Jean Rowe.

One of our classmates, Joyce Mitchell, every other week travels to the Office of Civilian Defense as a volunteer worker.

Loyal members of the Girls' Athletic Society are Ruth Kane, Marilyn Mead, Louise Milne and Ellenor Pioch.

We have two boys who are stars on the athletic field. They are Dennis Day, who goes out for track, and Brian Ferris, who is a first-rate player on the lightweight football and basket ball teams.

MILDRED SCHMIDT - ROOM 109

Row One—Bob Brown, Shirley Christofel, Jean Clark, Richard Costen, Richard Devine, Jacqueline Diller, Dorothy Ellis, Betty Fitzgerald. Row Two—Phyllis Friesner, James Hardenbrook, Hubert Jansen, Carol Johnson, John Johnson, Bob Kennedy, Marilyn Kohn, Joyce Koontz. Row Three—Donald Lechtenwald, Marjorie Lunn, Richard Metzger, Dorothy Neander, Rosemary Pool, Jean Ressler, John Rightmyer, Marie Sahloff. Row Four—James Serra, Colleen Spencer, Sylvia Stansbury, Robert Tanner, Charles Van Dusen, Jean Wieters, Madeline Scott.

A most versatile group of students in T. A. D. has for its homeroom teacher, Miss Mildred Schmidt. The pupils in Room 109 can boast of their room as a whole and also of their individual classmates. This sophomore group, therefore, decided that a little original poem about themselves would be their contribution to the 1944 Pot-O-Gold. They have chosen for the title:

"YOU CAN ALWAYS TELL A SOPHOMORE, BUT YOU CAN'T TELL HIM MUCH."

We are as proud as we can be
That we have two sophomore class officers, Bob Brown and Syb Stansbury.

There are others, too, in "109"
Who because of their deeds like stars do shine.

Bud Miller, an "A" student and president of the Hi-Y
Makes a good Student Council man at the same time.

John Johnson, our homeroom President,
Is a fine chap. To all, that's evident.

Our Vice-President, so full of fun,
Is none other than Marjorie Lunn.

Bob Brown, homeroom Secretary and Class President,
Athlete and "A" student, of Room 109 is a resident.

John Rightmyer guards our Treasury's hold
And also takes care of the Pot-O-Gold.

Dorothy Neander, of the Red Cross,
Would much rather work than act as a boss.

Marilyn Kohn is the War Stamp Clerk.
She surely does her share of work.

Dick Metzger acts as our Prism Rep.
He is such fun and so full of pep.

Tax Stamps are cared for by Jim Serra and Bob Tanner.
For them, we certainly should fly a banner.

Jim Hardenbrook and Shirley Christofel
Take excellent care of our athletic schedule.

All in all we are a good class.
And with Miss Schmidt at the helm we certainly should pass.

C. C. COONTZ - ROOM 126

By an odd turn of fate, there is an overwhelming majority of boys in Mr. Coontz's sophomore homeroom. The reason is, therefore, obvious that almost all the offices should be held by the "stronger sex."

Heading this type of Boys' Town is President Ben Durian. The one lucky girl who did land an executive position in this room is the Secretary, Alfreda Morris. In charge of our inevitably empty money box is Treasurer Phil Mersereau. Jack Robedeau acts as the Student Council Representative. Winona Hagerty counts and packets the accumulation of Sales Tax Stamps. Investing our money wisely into War Stamps and Bonds is Daniel Storey's patriotic homeroom duty. Alan Schindler makes an excellent Prism salesman. Our energetic Red Cross Representative is George Mooney. Dick Shimman patrols the cafeteria. Ralph Winters, as Boys' Athletic Representative, is responsible for our participation in sports activities.

Room 126 is an outstanding homeroom in the field of athletics. Our homeroom reached the finals in the intramural basketball tournament. The boys who were our cagers are: Captain Alan Imes, John Blodgett, Gordon Gilbert, Larry Lennon, Jack Meyers, and Alan Schindler. Our room is certainly proud of them! Two of our classmates, Don Bubacz and Dick Shimman are gridders on the lightweight football team. Bob Dixon made a fine tackle on the Varsity squad. Bob is also a member of the Sophomore Hi-Y.

But for all our interest in sports, we remember our study habits. Six students—Jim Churchman, Bob Dixon, Ben Durian, Jean Hansen, Larry Lennon, and Jack Robedeau have attained honor roll ratings.

We hope to keep our homeroom masculine throughout the next two years and desire also to maintain our good record, both athletically and scholastically.

CARL BALSAM - ROOM M-13

Mr. Balsam's sophomore homeroom, deep in the mechanical shop area, has students interested in practically every phase of school life in DeVilbiss. We belong to clubs, are in the DeViltries, in contests and programs, and on the hall patrol.

Our President is Ed Gannaway and aiding him as Vice-President is Pat Stacey who is also on the jury of the Student Court. Marilyn Prentiss holds the office of Secretary and keeper of the money is Treasurer Phil Craft. Rodney Repass is adept in the collection of funds, for he is a proficient War Stamp Salesman and Pot-O-Gold Solicitor. Keeping us at almost 100 per cent Prism sales is Yvonne Fairbanks' occupation. Our class has given abundantly to the Red Cross with Grace Pizer as Representative.

One of our oratorical students, Javan Corl, entered the annual Prince of Peace Declamation Contest and was a winner. Congratulations!

Yvonne Fairbanks presented two selections in the Christmas program in our library.

Another of our members, Roderick Gettel, is the founder and president of the Dramatic Club. Yvonne Fairbanks and Pat Stacey are members of this organization as well as the Sophomore Friendship Club. Ed Gannaway and Paul Brinker are enrolled in the Engineering Club and Albert Cramer is a loyal Hi-Y boy. Mary Ann McGuire, Pat Stacey, Jackie France and Yvonne Fairbanks are active in the Girls' Athletic Society.

When we returned to school last September, we found to our sorrow, that we had lost five members of the class to various other schools.

Two of our classmates, Phil Craft and Al Cramer, use their study periods for keeping would-be roamers out of the halls.

Our students are not too busy to neglect their schoolwork, however. Albert Cramer, Yvonne Fairbanks, Pat Stacey, and Ed Gannaway have kept their names on the honor roll list for their two years at DeVilbiss.

CLYDE KIKER - ROOM 325

"No, we didn't do anything special. We're just ordinary folk." This statement, made by Mr. Kiker, is probably true but it doesn't keep Room 325 from being known as one of the finest sophomore homerooms in DeVilbiss. We have had grand officers and excellent cooperation from the members of the class. DeVilbiss needs more homerooms such as this one, whose students eagerly await any task that is assigned to them, and then hustle to complete it.

Heading our list of officers, Glenn McKinley makes an efficient President. Nancy Lowry acts as the Vice-President and in so doing helps Glenn in his many executive duties. Our Secretary, Phyllis Kramb, is keeper of the minutes. Clare Amundson could be called the Treasurer because it is she who gathers in our monies and patrioticly invests our savings in United States War Bonds and Stamps. Peg Jackson is Room 325's member to the Student Council. Busily selling Pot O' Gold subscriptions is the picture our room usually has of Joanne Kuohn, who is the Solicitor. Our over seventy per cent Prism sales are due largely to the active interest Jeanne Haverstock, the Solicitor, has in keeping her good record up. Mr. Kiker's room filled two Christmas boxes for the Red Cross.

We have one boy, Chuck Cowles, who is an air-minded member of the C. A. P. C.

Joe Weaver was a singer in the barber-shop group in the DeViltries. Emmajean Struble and Jeanne Haverstock served as ushers in the two performances of this smash production.

Nancy Lowry, Emmajean Struble, and Barbara Renn who is a Leader, are active members in the Girls' Athletic Society.

The Sophomore Friendship Club has three of our classmates, Peg Jackson, Joanne Kuohn, and Nancy Lowry in its membership. Joanne Kuohn is one of the DeVilbiss energetic cheer leaders.

We have only girls listed as consistent honor roll people. Those who have been on during most of their two years as Tadites are: Clare Amundson, Peg Jackson, Joanne Kuohn, Nancy Lowry and Barbara Renn. In our next years as upper classmen we will strive to get more of the masculine "touch" on the honor roll and to keep our room as generous in all the activities as it has been in the past.

BERNICE KRAUSE - ROOM 247

There is no reason why the junior homeroom of Mrs. Bernice Krause shouldn't be one of the best homerooms in the school. For how could we miss with such officers as these: President, Bob Gregorek; Vice-President, Art Gertz; Secretary, Lucille Zoller; Treasurer, Arnold Yost; Red Cross, Nancy Culliford; Student Council, George Butcher; Boys' Athletics, Jim Welty; Girls' Athletics, Kathryn Harste; Prism, Jim Welty; Pot O' Gold, Bob Gregorek; Junior Executive Committee, John Lewis.

A quick glance will tell you that these elements mixed with the sorely needed athletic point of view make a well-rounded homeroom. Jim Ruttan, George Butcher, Bill Nicholas, Art Gertz, Don Konwin, John Lewis, Jim Welty, Dick Nottingham, Dick Aubry, and Bud Fritsch are active in both lightweight and intramural sports.

To balance the aforementioned elements, we have these girls in the Friendship Club: Barbara Lewis and Grace Klofta. Terry Jenkins is a member of the G. A. S.

Arnold Yost, Martha Goodwin, Jim Welty and Bob Gregorek have stood high on the honor roll during the past three years.

Our class was weakened by the loss of Bob Nissen and John Russell to the service of our country and by the loss of Talva Chapin, Margie Waxler, and Betty Fleck when they moved to various other cities.

With the aforementioned elements and the lovable standby, Mrs. Krause, we make for a better homeroom and a better school!

MYLDRED MESNARD - ROOM 160

We got 'em tall, we got 'em short, We've also got 'em fat and thin; In fact we've got most every sort, But they're the best there's ever been.

Class officers: President, Jane Denman; Vice-President, Gladys Stevenson; Secretary, Dolores Wendt; Treasurer, Carolyn Meinert. Tax Stamps, Pat Davis, Doris Goodman; War Stamps, Patty Eichenlaub; Prism Representative, Gloria Navarro; Pot O' Gold, Ruth Keller, Pat South; Red Cross, Betty Jane Gerke; Student Council, Annis Henry.

The students on the honor roll were: Dolores Wendt, Ida Belle Edgington, Laura Kaseman, Annis Henry, and Ruth Keller.

We wish to recognize Gloria Gray for her splendid work in selling war stamps and bonds. Last year she sold over six hundred dollars in our homeroom. Outstanding buyers are: Wilma Neeper, Virginia Stotz, Pat Davis, Annis Henry, and Ida Belle Edgington.

Gladys Stevenson, our Vice-President, has left 160 for a senior homeroom as she is graduating this year. Others who are leaving in June are Dolores Wendt and Jane Denman.

We really don't know what to say
To commemorate this book today;
But as a homeroom, we all know
We'll always remember our year '44.

MARJORIE WARNER - ROOM 115

Room 115, Miss Warner's homeroom, has been led this year by the following officers: President, Paula Wright; Vice-President, Pat Peeps; Secretary-Treasurer, Nancy Butler. We have been represented on the Student Council by Lucille Romberger and at the Red Cross meetings by Gerry Granger. Since Room 115 is sadly lacking in males, we have but one athletic representative, Joanne Behm. Prism Representative is Joan Felker and Pot O' Gold Solicitor, Holly Mankin.

Last October, Ottawa Park was the setting for a wiener roast which the members of our homeroom organized—with baseball as an added attraction. On the Friday before the Christmas holidays, a party was given during which Eleanor Steinmeyer, dressed as Santa Claus, distributed gifts.

Throughout the year, Room 115 has tried its utmost to do more than its part in connection with the Red Cross, the Community Chest, War Stamps and Bonds, and later, the Jeep Drive. Before the Christmas holidays, our Red Cross Committee, led by Gerry Granger, went shopping downtown for the purpose of filling two Red Cross boxes for English children. Our objective was reached with some to spare.

The buying of War Stamps and Bonds is a regular habit for nearly every student in Room 115. If every homeroom is as successful as ours, DeVilbiss will have little trouble in going over the top in our Jeep Drive.

In spite of these many and varied activities, we have not neglected our studies. Room 115 has been well-represented on the honor roll and we are always striving for a larger percentage of honor students.

VIRGINIA FRANCIS - ROOM 107

Room 107 is proud of its contribution to next year's football team—Captain Carl Hibscher. Present in the room in spirit if not in person are Pat Downing, who works in the Pot-O-Gold room during homeroom periods, and Marilyn Hutchins, who lends her able assistance in the office.

This room gives generously to any worthy cause, proved by their contributions to the "March of Dimes" which totaled fifteen dollars. They have also collected a great many tax stamps, and have done well as war stamp purchasers, with Lois Keller and Elmer Ames leading.

The class' pride and joy is its four members who have joined the armed forces. They are: Jan Van Ormer, Kenneth Strohm, Bill Bush, and Dick Miller.

ELLEN FOOTE - ROOM 150

The officers chosen this year in Miss Foote's homeroom include: President, Bill DeVore; Vice-President, John Ryder; Secretary-Treasurer, Gloria Henry; Sergeant-at-Arms, Bill DeVore.

Room 150 is proud to have had two officers of the Junior Class—John Ryder, Vice-President and Lloyd Thaxton, Treasurer—selected from among their number. We are proud also of having contributed two members to the varsity basketball team—Dwight Johnson and Bill DeVore.

More than seventy percent of our group purchased war stamps regularly.

Six members of this homeroom are to be commended for making the honor roll each grading period during their three years in DeVilbiss. They are: Richard Entenmann, Dwight Johnson, John Ryder, Joan Stanbach, Lloyd Thaxton, and Lois Weber.

RUSSELL BROWN - ROOM 101

This year our homeroom started out with a bang by contributing to the Red Cross and the Community Chest. June Young, our war stamp Chairman, has been selling war stamps in the lobby during the Junior homeroom period. Jim Proctor handled the Jeep Drive in our homeroom and carried it through with a great deal of success. We went over our quota by a wide margin and are still working, although the drive is now over.

Officers and representatives for the year were: Clarence Pawlicki, President; Bob Crowner, Vice-President; Dena Mulopulos, Secretary; and Joyce Morris, Treasurer. Barbara Freed was Student Council Representative; Marian Smith, Pot-O'-Gold; Joyce Farrell, Prism; Carol Colby, Red Cross, as well as representative to the Junior Executive Committee; and Bert Fike, Boys' Athletic Representative.

A new member in our homeroom is Bill McGary, who recently arrived from Kentucky.

Our honor roll of the following students shows splendid work in the scholastic end of things: Bob Crowner, Barbara Dearmin, Barbara Freed, Kenneth McGill, Dorothy Minier, Clarence Pawlicki, Ruth Randels, Jim Proctor, Marian Smith, Fern Wescott, Betty Wetnight.

In athletics, we contributed Bert Fike to football. Bert, along with Dick Tussing, helped to make our basketball team so successful. Our president, Clarence Pawlicki, entered the fray with a golf club.

All this was made possible by the guidance of Mr. Brown, our homeroom adviser. He is also kept busy by the entire Junior Class, for he acts in the capacity as adviser.

RUTH SMITH - ROOM 202

Room 202 reporting! Room 202 reporting! We have reached our objective and are coming to the close of another successful school year.

At the beginning of the year we planned to contribute in whatever way we could to the Red Cross, Community Chest, the war effort, and anything else that would be helpful to our school, community, and country. Under the guidance of our adviser, Miss Ruth Smith, and several student leaders we were ready for each campaign as it approached.

For the Red Cross we filled two boxes for small children in Europe and elsewhere so that their Christmas might be a little more cheerful. Marvel Gustafson, our Red Cross Representative, supervised the buying of the articles for these boxes. Then at Christmas the Red Cross wanted cookies for the soldiers at the Ordnance Depot, so, again under Marvel's leadership, we contributed several pounds of cookies. The annual Red Cross War Fund received our contribution of twelve dollars.

The school started a magazine subscription campaign and under the leadership of Dick Harbaugh, our Student Council Representative, we brought in our orders.

This has been a busy year, but we have not neglected our studies. Many of us have been on the honor roll ever since we came to DeVilbiss as freshmen in 1941. Betty Blodgett, Jim Goodrich, Shirley Kaucher, and Frances Westcott have succeeded in keeping this good record.

Looking back at our resolutions we find that we have carried them out to the best of our ability.

IVA GUIRE - ROOM 149

In homeroom 149 for the school year 1943-'44, the following officers were elected: President, Dick Sanner; Vice-President, Tom Fought; Secretary-Treasurer, Coralyn Lindsay; After these officers had been chosen, we set about selecting our representatives. These were our choice of representatives for the various school projects: Student Council, Lucille Thornburgh; Red Cross, Ruth Beckett; Prism, Foster Wilson; Pot O' Gold, Coralyn Lindsay.

Our honor roll for this year has consisted of six names. Our consistent honor roll students are these: Nancy Barnett, Gloria Bernstein, Virginia Gill, Jane Osterman, Lucille Thornburgh, Foster Wilson.

Unusual luck struck when four newcomers—Ronald Boltz, John Beroth, Virginia Gill, and Russell Barrowman—arrived in our homeroom. Russ has already left us to join the armed forces. Foster Wilson, expecting to graduate in June, has gone to a senior homeroom.

The "Deck of Cards Shuffle"—the annual J-Hop—had Bud Dixon and Dick Sanner serving on committees.

MARIE LERCHE - ROOM 105

At exactly 12:35 Miss Lerche, one of the advisers for the Junior Class, firmly closes the door of room 105 and another Junior homeroom period begins. Let's tip-toe into the room and see what happens during a typical session.

Oh! oh! Here comes Margery Garrett with an armful of Prisms. She's on the decoration committee for the Junior Prom, too. Over there is Lewis Heldt, the homeroom Treasurer, collecting money for war stamps. Mary Ellen Schill, the Secretary, is busily trying to make out the minutes of the last meeting.

Well, it looks as if something were going on. Janet Lanz, President, is trying in vain to get the attention of the class from Eldon Williamson, who is collecting money for the Pot-O-Gold. She finally gives up, grabs Joan Pross, and with their permanent hall permits leave for the Pot-O-Gold room, where they spend most of their homeroom periods. Janet is the Circulation Manager and Joan is one of the Art Editors.

Here comes Dick Juergens, the Student Council Representative, just coming back from a meeting of the Junior Finance Committee. Over there, giving a pep talk to a group of girls is Alice Kuntz, Red Cross Representative. Don DeWitt, who served on the Junior Elective Commission, is arguing with Eldon Williamson, Boys' Athletic Representative, about a chemistry problem. It seems—but there goes the bell for fifth hour!

DAVID VOSS - ROOM 118

These students served the class on the J-Hop Committee: Jane Metzger, Penny Sfakianos, Sue Vollmayer, and Rosemary Baldwin. Special tribute goes to Jane Metzger for the unusual but fitting "Deck of Cards" decorations—Nice going, Jane.

We hope that our contributions to the varied work of the Junior Class, as a whole, has made this year successful.

WARD BRICKER - ROOM 125

Using the plan of "only necessities for the duration," we of Mr. Bricker's homeroom decided to elect only those officers and representatives which we believed were necessary for the maintenance of efficiency. Since it was unanimously decided that a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer were unnecessary, the results were not difficult to compile.

The fellow residents of the homeroom are very proud of their hard-fighting basketball team. Headed by Captain Dick Snyder, the team was composed of Chuck Meranda, Melvin Mikolajczak, Richard Shumacker, Bob Teufel, and Donald Rowland.

MARY BARGMANN - ROOM 225

The most outstanding feature of homeroom 225 is the absence of the male of the species. Strange to say, all the girls like this arrangement, for then the paint and powder can be applied without restraint. The slightly bewildered mother hen of this extremely active brood of chicks is Miss Mary Bargmann, who uses her restraining influence to good advantage when needed; but in general she lets nature take its course.

Pat Herzberg heads the class of officers, Marolyn Bossler is Vice-President, while Eugenie Eichman is keeper of the minutes and custodian of the empty treasury. The class gives generously to the Red Cross under the direction of Dorothy Wells, and Norma DeMun goes allout for victory as war stamp salesman. Ginny Klewer is the newsboy when the Prism comes out and Priscilla Inselman collects for the Pot-O-Gold. We are well-represented in the Student Council by Carol Patten and in the Junior Executive Council by Barb Heesen.

We all enjoy this half hour interlude and go to fifth hour refreshed and well-informed on all the latest gossip. Brainwork does not cease, however, as room 225 can boast of over a third of the girls being on the honor roll.

FERN DICKEY - ROOM 108

In homeroom 108 the following officers presided for 1943-'44: President, Miran Tutelian; and Secretary-Treasurer, Margery Cohn. Miss Dickey's homeroom was represented on the Student Council by Bob McIntyre; in the Red Cross by Nancy Lou Walls; Prism Solicitor was Pat Robertson; and War Stamps were handled by Joanne Eckel. Boys' and Girls' Athletic Representatives were, respectively, Dale Flickinger and Peggy Bartholomew.

The members of the homeroom are proud of their two contributions to the Junior Class officers in the persons of "Rock" Parkinson who reigned as President, and Peggy Bartholomew who ably filled the office of class Secretary.

Miran Tutelian, President of the homeroom, was active on the Junior Prom Committee. Majorette Nancy Lou Walls is from this homeroom, as is Cheerleader Ann Miehls. Room 108 has contributed to the orchestra through Gene Geisert and Alice Ingwerson, and to the lightweight football team through Norman Beck.

Homeroom members are particularly proud of Bob McIntyre who has left their midst for the Army Air Corps.

Room 108 has been well-represented on the honor roll by Nick Photos, Peggy Bartholomew, Dale Flickinger, Margery Cohn, Nancy Lou Walls, Kenneth Diehl, and Ronald Meyer.

OLIVE McHUGH - ROOM 106

Under the helpful eye of our adviser, Miss McHugh, we chose our leaders for this year. Lorne Nedvidek was victorious in the election and became our President. John Cooke, runner-up, is our Vice-President. Betty Nisch has done well the work of both Secretary and Treasurer. Our representatives are: June Seeman, Girls' Athletics; David Bender, Boys' Athletics; Bob Meeker, Prism; Takiko "Tak" Yokoyama, Red Cross. "Tak" is a welcome newcomer, arriving from Oregon.

The war effort has become a very important thing to us in the homeroom. Francis Walla, a former member of 106, is now serving Uncle Sam in the navy. Donnagail McAfee has been keeping the War Stamp sale high by her daily trips to the War Stamp booth fourth hour. January 9th our Social Committee, which is composed of John Cook, Betty Nisch, David Bender, and Bob Meeker, planned a skating party and gathering followed by refreshments.

Members of the homeroom who participated in the DeViltries are: Phyllis Burkett, Betty Nisch, June Seeman, Mable Suter, and Gerry Snyder.

Toward mid-year, Frank Coss and Gerry Snyder left us to be in the Prism room and closer to their work.

One of our greatest thrills came when our intramural team won the junior class tournament. Bob Meeker, Bob Moor, Dave Bender, Bob Thielman, Jack Hart, and Gerry Borgelt were the members of our team. Even the Champion senior team succumbed to their playing.

FRANK ARCHAMBO - ROOM 112

The class was represented on the Student Council by Helen Saunders, and at Red Cross meetings by Peggy Martin. Colleen Moore handled the purchase of War Stamps. Prism Solicitor was Donabea Murlin, and collecting for the Pot-O-Gold was June Sniffen. The Boys' and Girls' Athletic Representatives were, respectively, Bill Cross and Jo Dee McBee.

Many students worked down town this year, and most of them carried an increased program of war activities, although studies were not neglected. Nine students were consistently on the honor roll. They were: Charles Brown, Dick Bohl, James Lupe, Jo Dee McBee, Joanne Merrill, Betty Sporleder, John Strayer, Bill Taylor, and Phyllis Zolciak.

RALPH MERRILL - ROOM M-1

This junior homeroom is composed entirely of boys. It is headed by Mr. Merrill, who is assisted by the class' competent officers: President, Bob Gates; Vice-President, Stanley Paris; Secretary, Chuck Bottorff; Treasurer, Dick Brinkman.

When Prism sales reached one hundred percent, it is due to the efforts of Chuck Hohly, Prism Solicitor. All Pot O' Gold subscriptions were handled by Dana Morgan, who is also a member of the hall patrol. Carl Blank is the Student Council Representative. Red Cross and Junior Executive Council posts are held by Bob Ayling and Bob Gates.

Under the heading of war effort, we find Dana Morgan leading the War Bond parade with the purchasing of two fifty dollar war bonds. Jim Meyer has purchased one fifty dollar bond and Bob Devine, a twenty-five dollar bond. Besides these bonds, the class has purchased sixty-nine dollars in War Stamps. Dick Bridgman, War Bond and Stamp Salesman, has done a marvelous job, as shown above.

JUNIOR CLASS ACHIEVEMENT

A signal honor came to DeVilbiss when George Denny, Moderator of America's Town Meeting of the Air chose Frank Coss of the Junior Class to speak on the coast-to-coast broadcast on May 4, 1944. Frank and three other high school students, selected from the nation at large, appeared on the program with Governor John W. Bricker to discuss the question: "Does Youth Want Social Security from the Cradle to the Grave?"

LEISUR

Under the capable direction of the faculty advisers, our clubs were inaugurated and perfected into interesting, helpful organizations. By means of lectures, films, and practical demonstrations, we learned new facts to be applied to our educational program. We had many other uses for our time after school. We studied art, drama, literature, and language under the tutelage of our advisers. The success of these clubs showed the way for others to be organized in the future.

HOURS

Through our participation in this war, we have acquired knowledge of the one word that precedes all others. If one would seek the meaning of the word, cooperation, he would find that it denotes the act of working jointly together. Our clubs have found the meaning and they are following it to the best of their ability. The Friendship Clubs, the Hi-Y, and all others are lending their aid to the war effort, and have proved themselves equal to the duties they have assumed.

ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mrs. Mathilde Burns the school orchestra again completed a busy year. In December a concert was given for the student body. Mrs. Dorothy Nubrecht and Mrs. Esther West, pianists, and Mr. Charles Gregory, flutist, were guest performers. Twenty-six of the members of the all-city high school orchestra which played at the Art Museum were from DeVilbiss. These same people also assisted in a program which was presented over the radio. In April, the orchestra made a tour of the West Toledo grade schools giving concerts to the pupils. The orchestra's concluding concert was given in May in cooperation with the band and chorus for the Parents' and Teachers' Association.

Besides the regular issues, the staff printed a literary supplement and an issue in tribute to the DeVilbiss boys serving in the armed forces. In addition to putting out a paper every two weeks, the combined business and literary staffs commandeered a very successful war bond drive to buy jeeps.

Every year, students who perform outstanding work in the field of journalism are elected to Quill and Scroll, International Society of High School Journalists. Members this year were: Joan Boote, Bill Evans, Margaret Park, Mary Jane Crothers, Barbara Martin, Doris McFarlane, and Helen Buchanan.

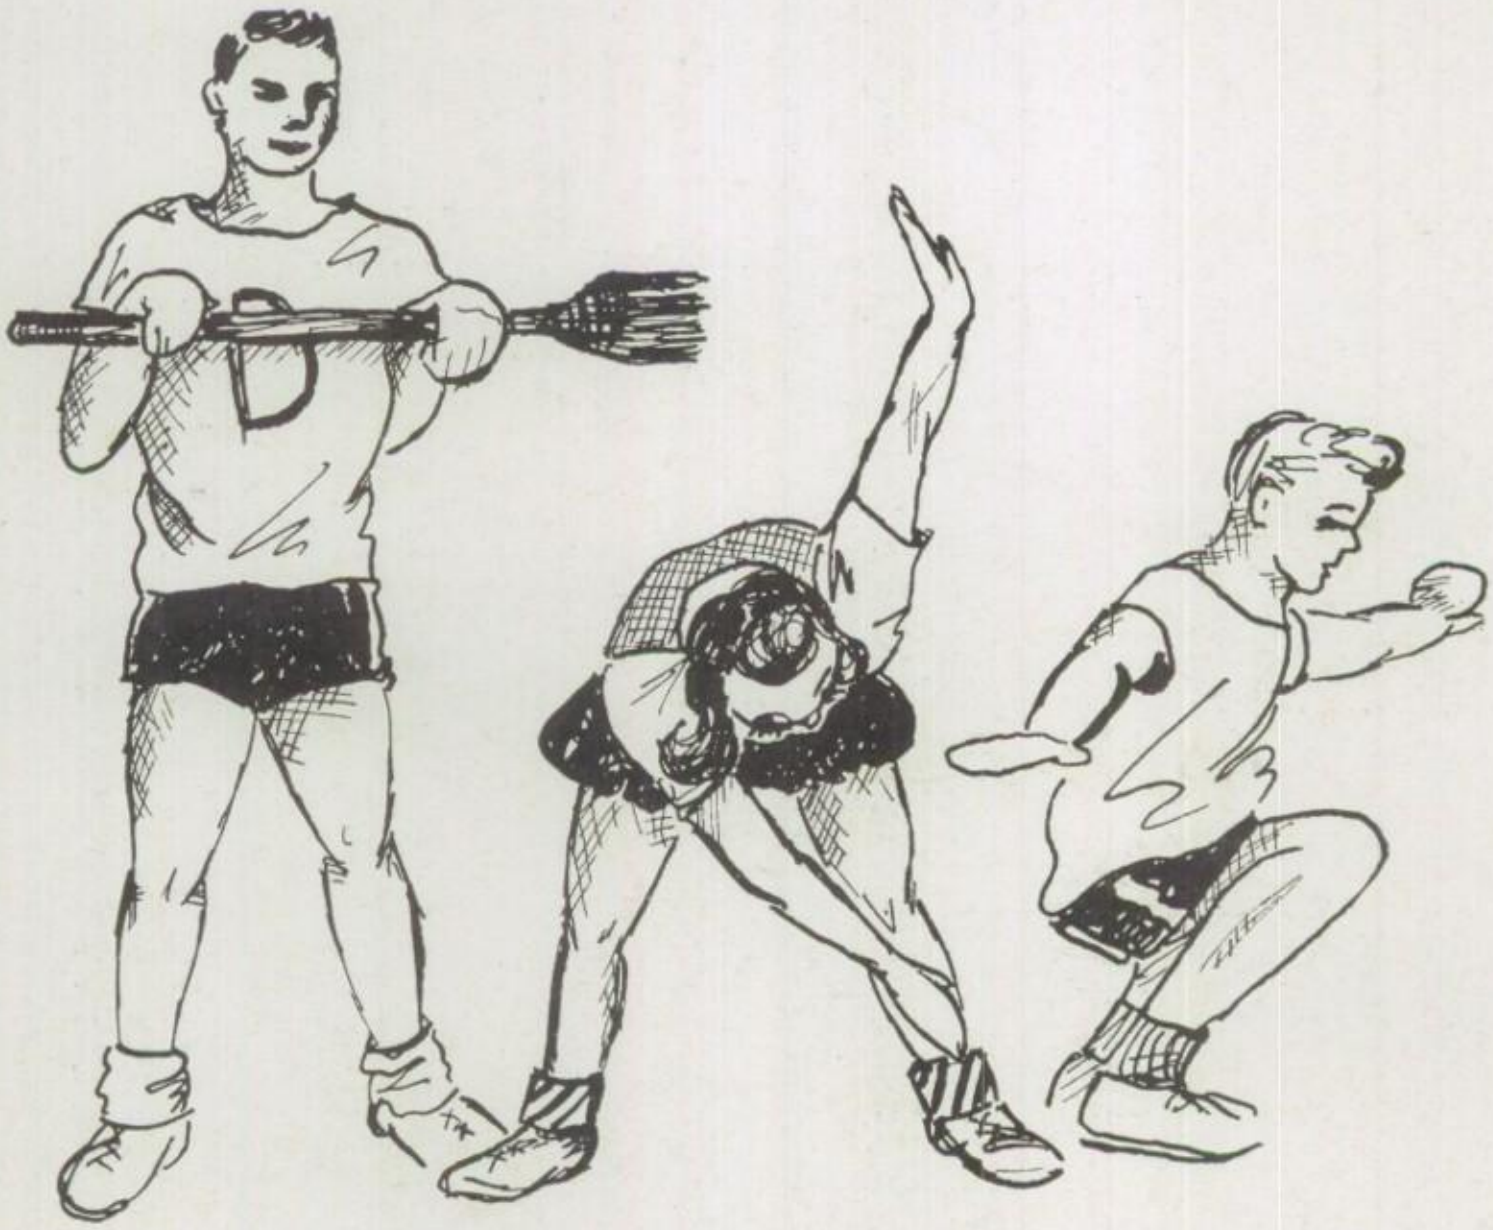
TESTIN

Our sports were designed only as an outlet for exuberant spirits—a period for play and relaxation. Few were the students who, looking into future, entered upon a program of health-building exercises. We were all out for victory—a victory for our teams over those of other schools or other classes. Our trophies meant much to us. They gave us in tangible form the glory of winning as season leaders or in tournament games. We have progressed far on the road of serious playing since then.



GROUNDS

In a far-seeing move of those authorities who govern our activities, calisthenics were introduced as a regular feature of our athletic program. It is for our future role as members of the armed services or as war workers that we carefully build up and store strength and stamina. Now our boys work together to develop a high degree of cooperation which leads to coordination. They are readying themselves for the "big team."

Champions of Toledo. Yearly DeVilbiss stands among the city's sport leaders whether it be in football, basketball, track or any other field and it is a very unusual year when the Tigers are not city champions in some phase of athletics. But even more important than the ability to win is the enjoyment of athletics and the molding of athletes from ordinary students. DeVilbiss has a large gymnastic plant which offers facilities to everyone under the guidance of fine coaches. Varsity and intramural groups are founded to encourage teamwork and good sportsmanship among all classes and other schools. Stressed foremost in DeVilbiss athletics is the desire for competition and success, always realizing, however, that success is not recorded wholly by the score of the game, but in the way the game is played.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

DeVilbiss opened its 1943 football season by losing a 12 to 6 struggle to Scott. The green Tiger squad composed of many first year varsity men (including several sophomores) was unable to stop the tricky "T" formation used by the Bulldogs.

In the second game of the season, DeVilbiss was at the mercy of Central Catholic. Big Duane Malinowski crashed through the Tiger forward wall while Pinciotti scooted around the end for the six Irish touchdowns.

The powerful Waite Indians had a hectic night in defeating the stubborn Tigers in a 21 to 14 decision for the Tiger's third game. With strong line and a fast backfield, the Indians consistently tore holes in the Tiger forward wall only to be stopped by the comparatively light DeVilbiss backfield.

A hard fought game between two evenly matched teams found DeVilbiss on front, 13 to 7 in their first clash with Woodward.

The Tigers got revenge in a high scoring 26 to 20 game for the defeat handed them earlier in the season by Scott. DeVilbiss centered its attack around Brown's passing. Excitement was provided by Ehrhardt when he received a Scott kickoff on his own 20 yard line and out maneuvered the entire Scott team to dash 80 yards for DeVilbiss's second score.

In the second meet with Central, DeVilbiss lost 13 to 6. DeVilbiss was the first to score after advancing 58 yards by Ehrhardt's running and Nappenbach's crashing the line. With the aid of Dick Shuler and Carl Hibscher our line smothered all of Central's second half scoring attempts.

Turning loose all the power they possessed, the Indians ran wild in a 66 to 6 slaughter. Ehrhardt managed to keep the Tigers from going scoreless by bucking over from the one yard line. Brown, Tiger safety man, starred on defense.

The DeVilbiss team held Woodward scoreless in a roughly played second tilt. Bob Boddy added to the score in the second quarter by plunging for six points. A Brown to Pfeiffer aerial added another while Nappenbach tore through center to make the final score 24 to 0.

DeVilbiss won their only road game on the snow covered field at Fremont. Jack Pfeiffer used his height to advantage in blocking two punts which quickly were converted into DeVilbiss's touchdowns. The final score was 12 to 0.

Libbey won the 12th annual Thanksgiving day game before a capacity crowd in their stadium. The Tiger team fought back until a fumble late in the last quarter blasted their hopes.

Hitting 'em Hard

Made up mostly of sophomores and juniors, the Tiger Kittens turned out a very presentable season by winning the city championship. Coaching by Don Sharp did much to bring out the talent that will rule our varsity ball. Captained by Bob Brown, our lightweights won all their games but few were easy for them. The Ottawa Hills—DeVilbiss game proved a thriller to the audience. DeVilbiss won 13 to 12. The Kittens with their wonderful record will be excellent candidates for next year's varsity team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Against some of the classiest opposition in and outside of Toledo, DeVilbiss varsity cagers recorded fifteen victories and one defeat for another successful season under the guidance of Coach "Scotty" Florence.

Employing a fast break and highly successful plays, the Tigers took thirteen of their first fourteen games before they ran into, for the second time, Woodward's Polar Bears, who became runners-up for the state title. Captain Jack Pfeiffer, the tall and fast center and a demon on defense, led the Tiger scoring column with 285 out of 862 points netted by the squad. Sam Botek's long shots, Dave Brown's dribbling agility, Leo Maher's side shots, and Al Lewis's superb guarding sewed up more than one contest and enabled the Tiger men to share the city title with Woodward.

In the district meet, DeVilbiss was defeated in the semi-finals by Macomber 44-46, but they went on to claim the consolation prize by defeating Central. Jack Pfeiffer was voted the most valuable player by fellow teammates at their ending banquet.

The entire first string team will graduate in June and it is up to this year's reserves to carry on the fine record set by this year's quintet.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

The Lightweight Basketball team completed its season by winning eleven out of fourteen games. Bob Brown led the scoring column for lightweights followed by Norbert Todd. The Tiger kittens opened the season with a thrilling win over Central. They continued to win, beating Macomber, Waterville, Sylvania, Scott, Woodward and Waite. Libbey handed them their first defeat of the season by scoring in a few remaining seconds the basket that won the game. The team lost to Central and Macomber before recovering to score victories over Scott, Woodward, Waite, and Libbey. Our lightweights finished second in the city race two games behind the leader.

DeVilbiss again produced a winning Track Team in the Spring of '43. After winning the City Championship they went on to take laurels at the District meet in Bowling Green. The team entered the State Meet and gave the winners top-notch competition which was paced by Jack Harbaugh, Dick Crumley, Lee Sanner, Dick Goins, Dave Brown and Walter Franke.

BOWLING

The American and the National teams completed a championship year. The Nationals finished second in the City League while the Americans placed third. The two teams furthered their victories by claiming the championship of the City Roll-Off Tournament. Charles Breese, captain of the National team, had the highest average, highest individual game, and the highest series score in our school.

TENNIS

Last year's tennis season proved to be the most outstanding one for DeVilbiss. The team composed of Dave Brown, Bob Brown and Joe Cannon reached the state meet. Dave won the single championship of Ohio, while Bob and Joe reached the semi-finals of the doubles tournament.

Dave played Jack Hirsh of Cleveland in his final match. Hirsh took the first set 7-5 and led in the second set 5-1 when Dave staged an outstanding comeback to win the set 7-5. He then went on to win the final set 6-3.

PING-PONG

This year's ping-pong single championship belongs to Bill Wood. He defeated Dave Brown in the finals 21-18, 21-19, 21-18. Bill played an exceptionally fine game. He and Dave then teamed to win the doubles.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Miss Lois Entemann, Mrs. Jane Terhell, Miss Emily Mocek

Dear Girls:

Well, I've been around a long time now and no one's asked my opinion about anything before. So when two good-looking DeVilbiss girls came up and asked me what's been going on this year in girls' sports, I was really surprised. I soon recovered my poise, however, and began chattering away at a great rate.

I told them about the wonderful hockey and baseball playing I've seen, and the way those freshman gals really went to town in basketball. Then I mentioned the G. A. S. Coed Ball where a queen reigned and where there were prizes for the funniest costumes. They laughed at the thought of Pops' Night when the girls all played against their dads. Moms, too, were honored with a special party for them.

I described the fun they had in modified gym with archery and ping pong, and the way Mrs. Terhell has continued the Leaders' Club. I recalled the many sore legs and cracked shins after modern dancing but everyone had lots of fun. And last of all on my memory parade was the Girls' Athletic Society Annual Banquet where awards were given and entertainment and goodfellowship prevailed.

So here's a toast to the best year of girls' sports in DeVilbiss, and a hope that future years will be able to measure up to it. I'll be doing my part and I expect you girls to carry on.

Sincerely yours,
"Gym."

HOCKEY

Hockey is becoming more and more important in our school athletic program. Each regulation team is composed of eleven players—five forwards, three halfbacks, two fullbacks, and a goalie. The game itself is much like football. Each team has eleven players and each team tries to score by crossing the opponents' goal. There are many skills in hockey for the beginner to learn. Proper handling of the stick, hard controlled drives, ability to pass and receive quickly and properly, are but a few of the many necessary skills. Hockey is an exciting game, full of much starting and stopping. Each member of the team must be alert and quick if the team is going to win. Each player should aim for perfect control of the ball. Hockey is "tops" when its players know the proper techniques.

BASKETBALL

Basketball is the favorite team game of the majority of high school girls. A girls' basketball game is started by a center throw. After each score is made and after the last free-throw following a double foul the ball is put in play at the center in this manner. A team consists of five players . . . three forwards and three guards. The forwards and guards are on opposite ends of the floor and neither can cross the center line. Guards cannot shoot baskets. Although the rules are modified from boys' basketball the girls still enjoy this sport. Keen competition is aroused between classes and often they challenge each other to test their merit. There are only a few who do not enjoy this winter sport.

On Sides for the Bully

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball is another sport that can claim "American citizenship." It stresses teamwork, cooperation, sportsmanship, mixed play and other democratic principles. Eight players on a team are used with only slightly modified rules. One unassisted serve starts the play. The ball is in turn volleyed over the net until one team fails to do so. Not only the ability to send your balls over the net but also the ability to assist your team mates return the volley is important. This game requires a great amount of cooperation. If a member fails to hit the ball all the way over the net, it is the duty of those near the falling ball to help it over. Volleyball is growing more and more popular each year it is played.

One of Them is a Bull's-Eye

BASEBALL

Softball is the sport that follows volleyball in the school year. The rules of girls' baseball are much like regular baseball rules except that all pitches must be made underhand and there can be no balks by the pitcher or stealing bases by the runners. This true American game is enjoyed by almost all. There are but a few who aren't thrilled by striking a batter out or catching a high fly or perhaps even scoring a home run. It's a joy to many when the first day of spring weather comes to bounce out of doors, impatiently awaiting the chance to "sock" the ball.

Prize Winners at the Coed Ball

Dear Girls:

This is an open letter directed to all girls who have been members of the Girls' Athletic Society this past year. It was fun, wasn't it?

And didn't you enjoy everything you did! We did and we think you did too. From the crisp autumn weather when we bundled up in jeans and skin guards, grabbed our stick, and then dashed out for a good game of hockey, to the warm spring days when baseball fever was in the air, we all had fun. After hockey came basketball—the favorite of all sports. How hard we all played to see if we could win every game we were in and often one of us just had a "bad night." Volleyball to most of us was the fill-in between basketball and baseball while the weather was clearing up. Even though we talked against it, whenever we actually played, we loved it and tried hard to keep our team winning.

Yes, we really had a rounded year in sports, indoors and out. Our parties and projects were fun and important also. We opened our year up right with a Mardi Gras—and a real one too. We had floats and a queen, and judges and all the other things a good Mardi Gras has. We spent time in making that a memorable night. And remember our party for the orphans? How hard the committee worked to wrap gifts and candy bags only to face the fact on the day of the party that our orphans had the measles! But the committee weren't discouraged, oh no, they took all the presents and food right to them and then we had a party of our own.

In February, we held the championship girls' basketball games in front of the student body. We suppose we'll never forget losing to the juniors in the finals. For three years we had looked forward to that game and then, in less than an hour, we lost it.

Oh, well, the DeViltries came along soon after. Miss Entemann rehearsed two groups of girls for an Interlude in the DeViltries. The juniors were one group and the seniors, the other.

After much practicing and revising, our labors bore fruit. Our part was one of the finest in the whole show—if we may say so.

We gave a roller skating party in March and it, too, was a big success. We had a nice crowd and a swell evening. We held Pops' Night and Moms' Day, too, and best of all we had our senior banquet which put the finishing touch on a perfect year.

We want to thank all you freshmen, sophomores and juniors for being wonderful and cooperating with us in everything we asked. We're proud to have known you and we're terribly proud to know that this "tops" of all organizations is in such good hands for the coming years.

Yours,
Senior Members

● Mrs. King, finding bugs in her room, wrote an explosive letter to Poffenbach stating how angry she was at the incident. The next day she received a letter apologizing so sweetly that she was ashamed of her preceding letter. Turning the letter over to get the sender's address so she could send another letter to apologize, she saw stamped on the back, "Send this gal Bug letter No. C-4329. —C. B.

NOTE:—Mrs. King has recently found two bugs about an inch long. One in her room and one in the Rest Room.
